A black and white photograph of the exterior of Columbia High School. The building features a large, light-colored brick wall with the words "COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL" in bold, dark, sans-serif capital letters. Below the main wall, there is a concrete walkway and a set of stairs with a metal railing. Three students are sitting on the stairs. To the right, there are two large, dark, rectangular windows. A tall, thin light pole stands near the stairs. The foreground shows a grassy area and a concrete curb.

To Everything . . .
There Is A Season

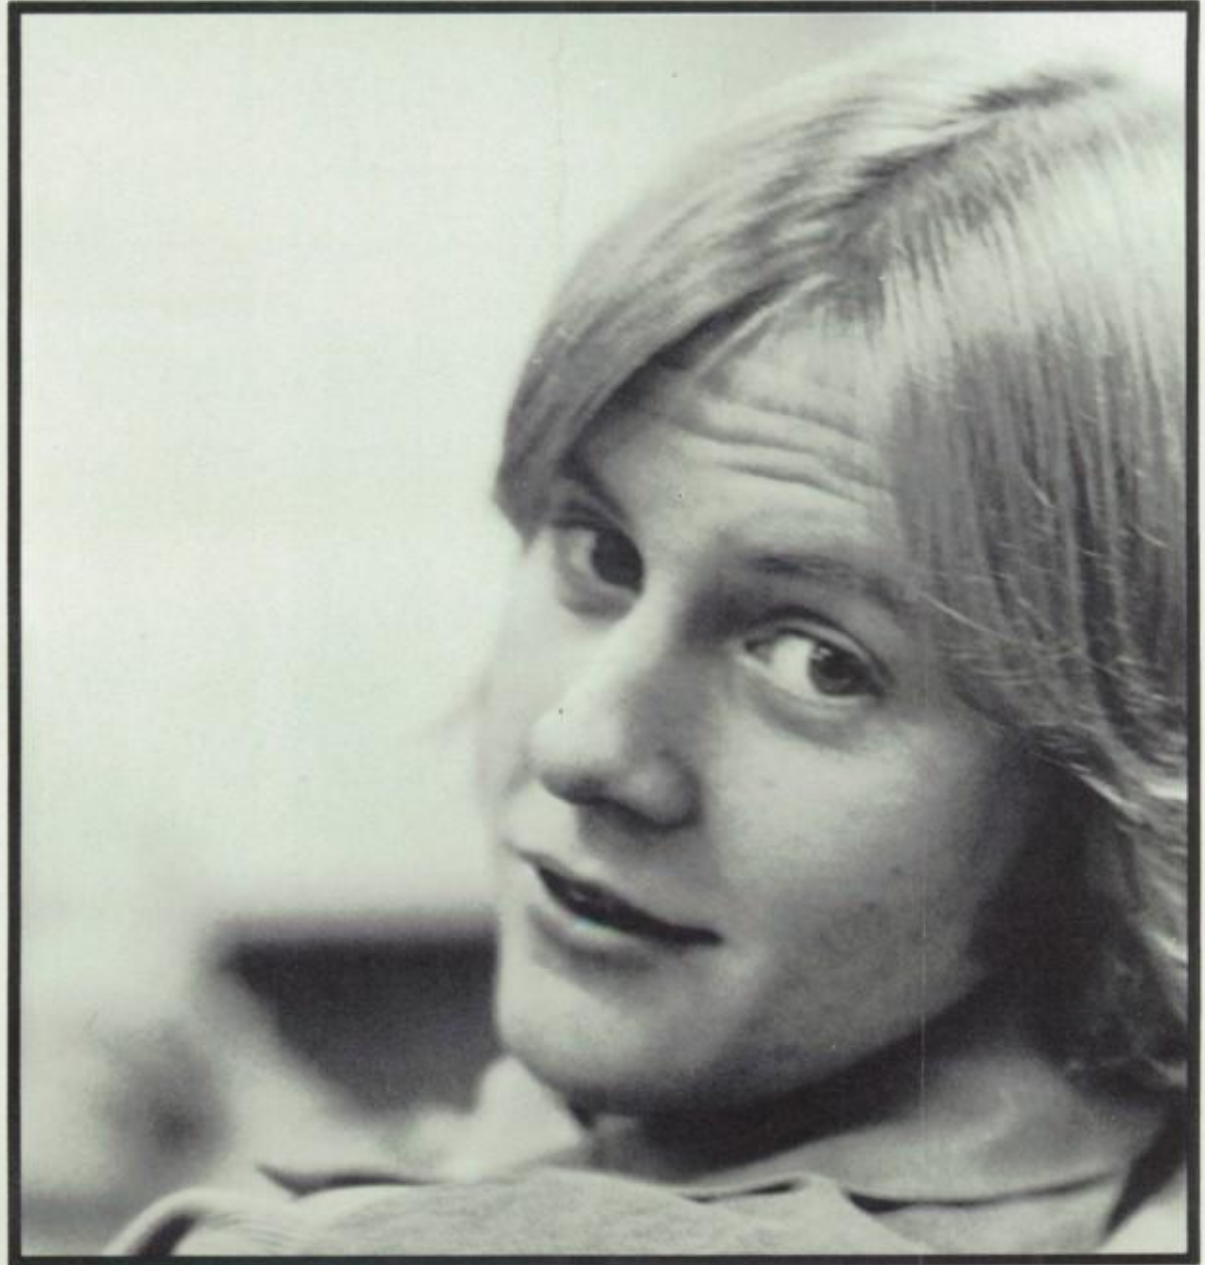

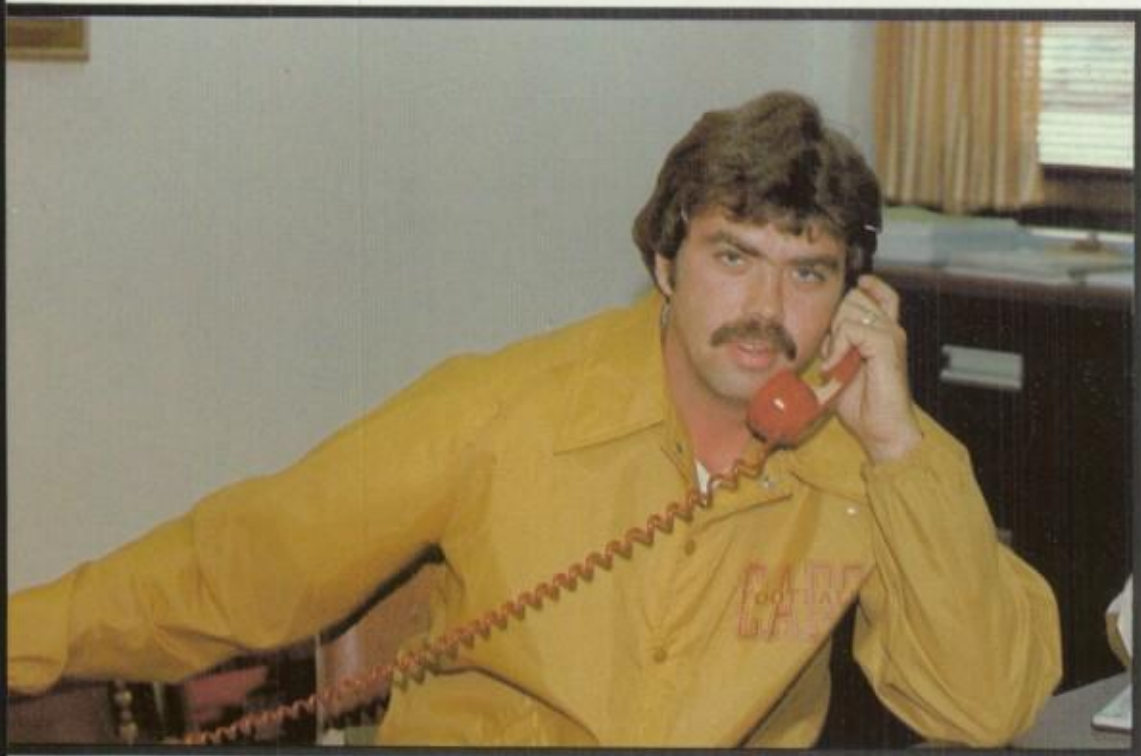

A Season of

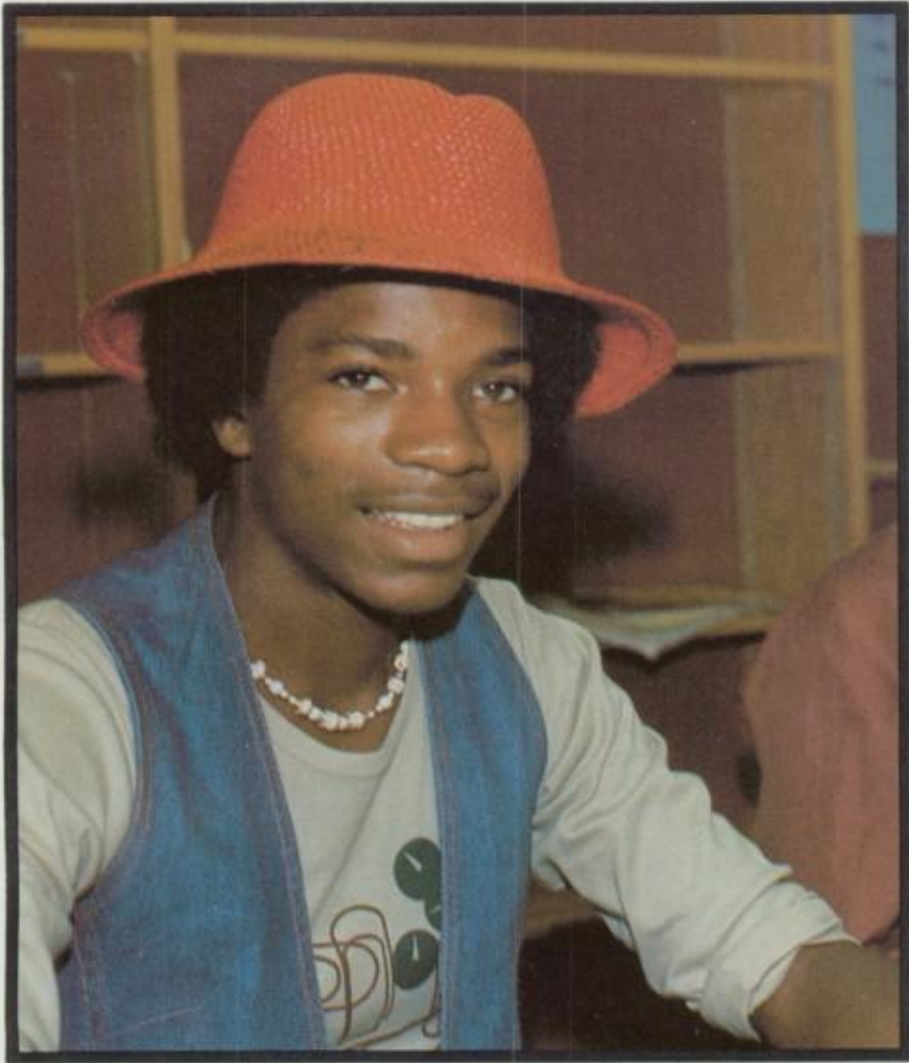

Excitement! . . . Laughter . . . Crying
 . . . Shouting! . . . Listening . . .
 Learning . . . Accepting . . . Yearning
 . . . Embracing . . . Hurting . . . Healing
 . . . Liking . . . Loving . . . FEELING!!

A season of many things!

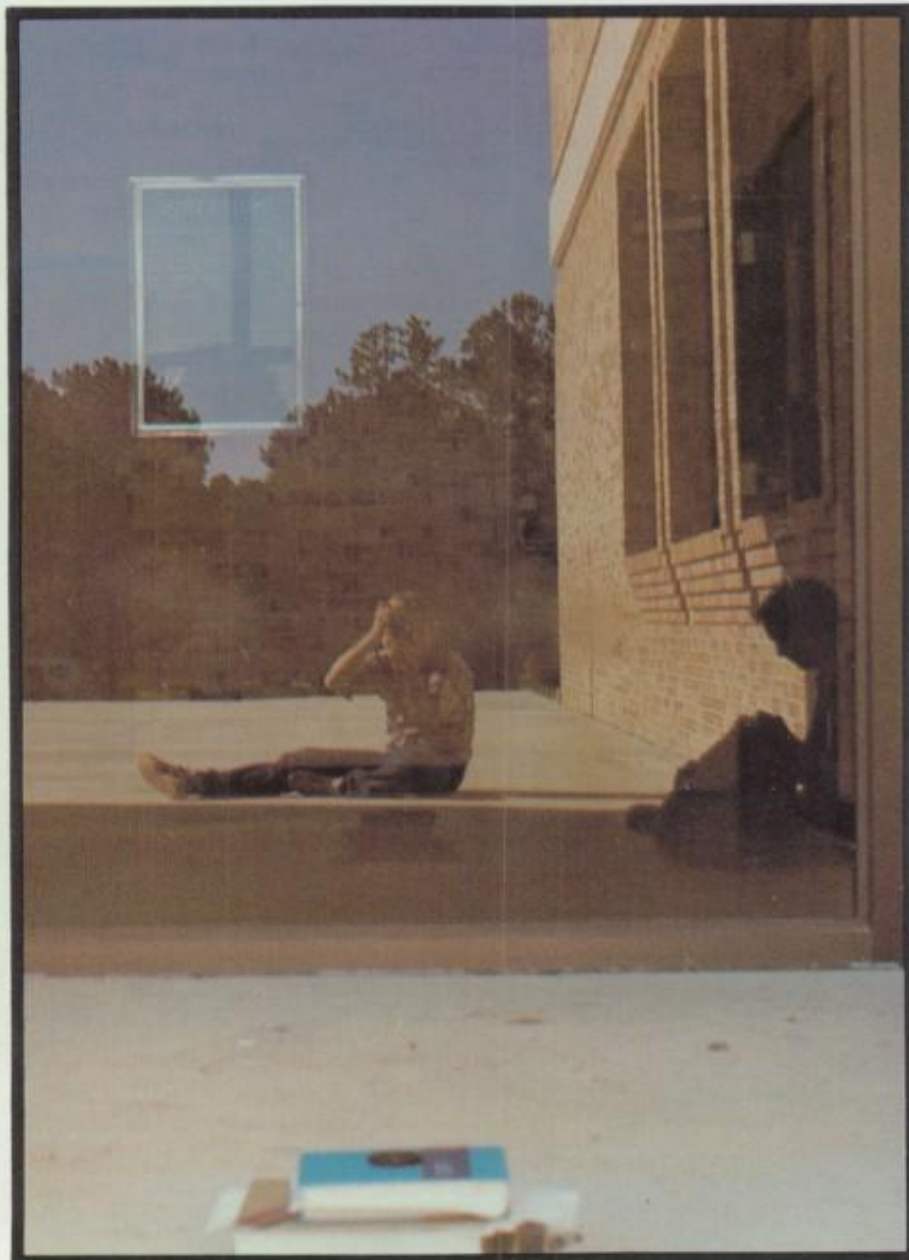

A Zest Of Enthusiasm

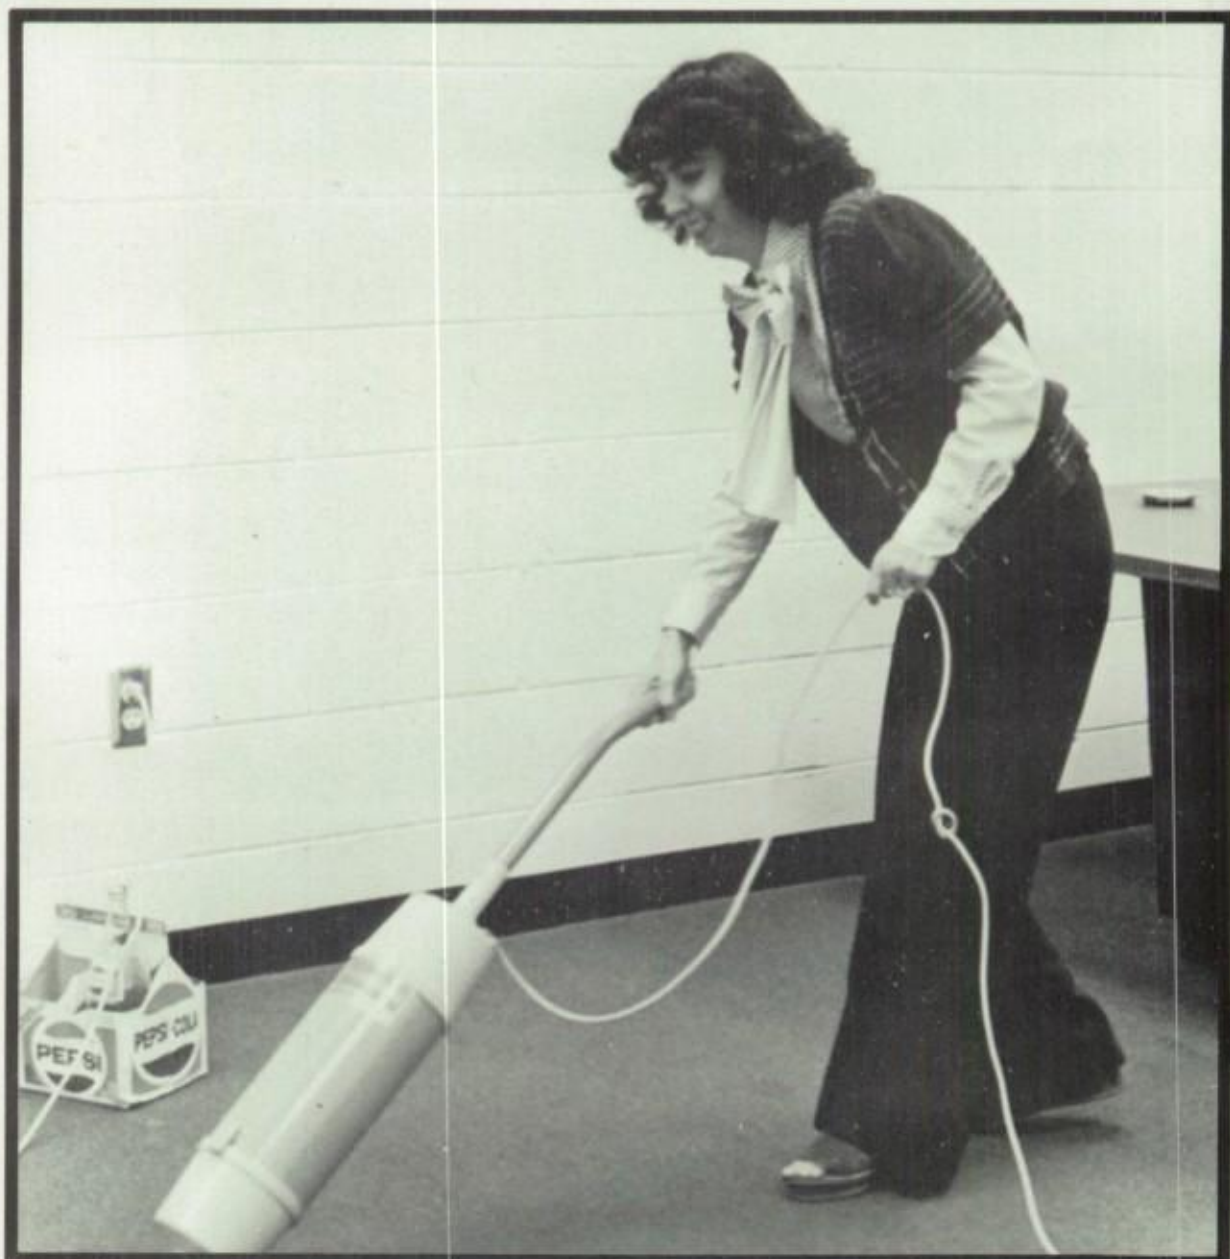

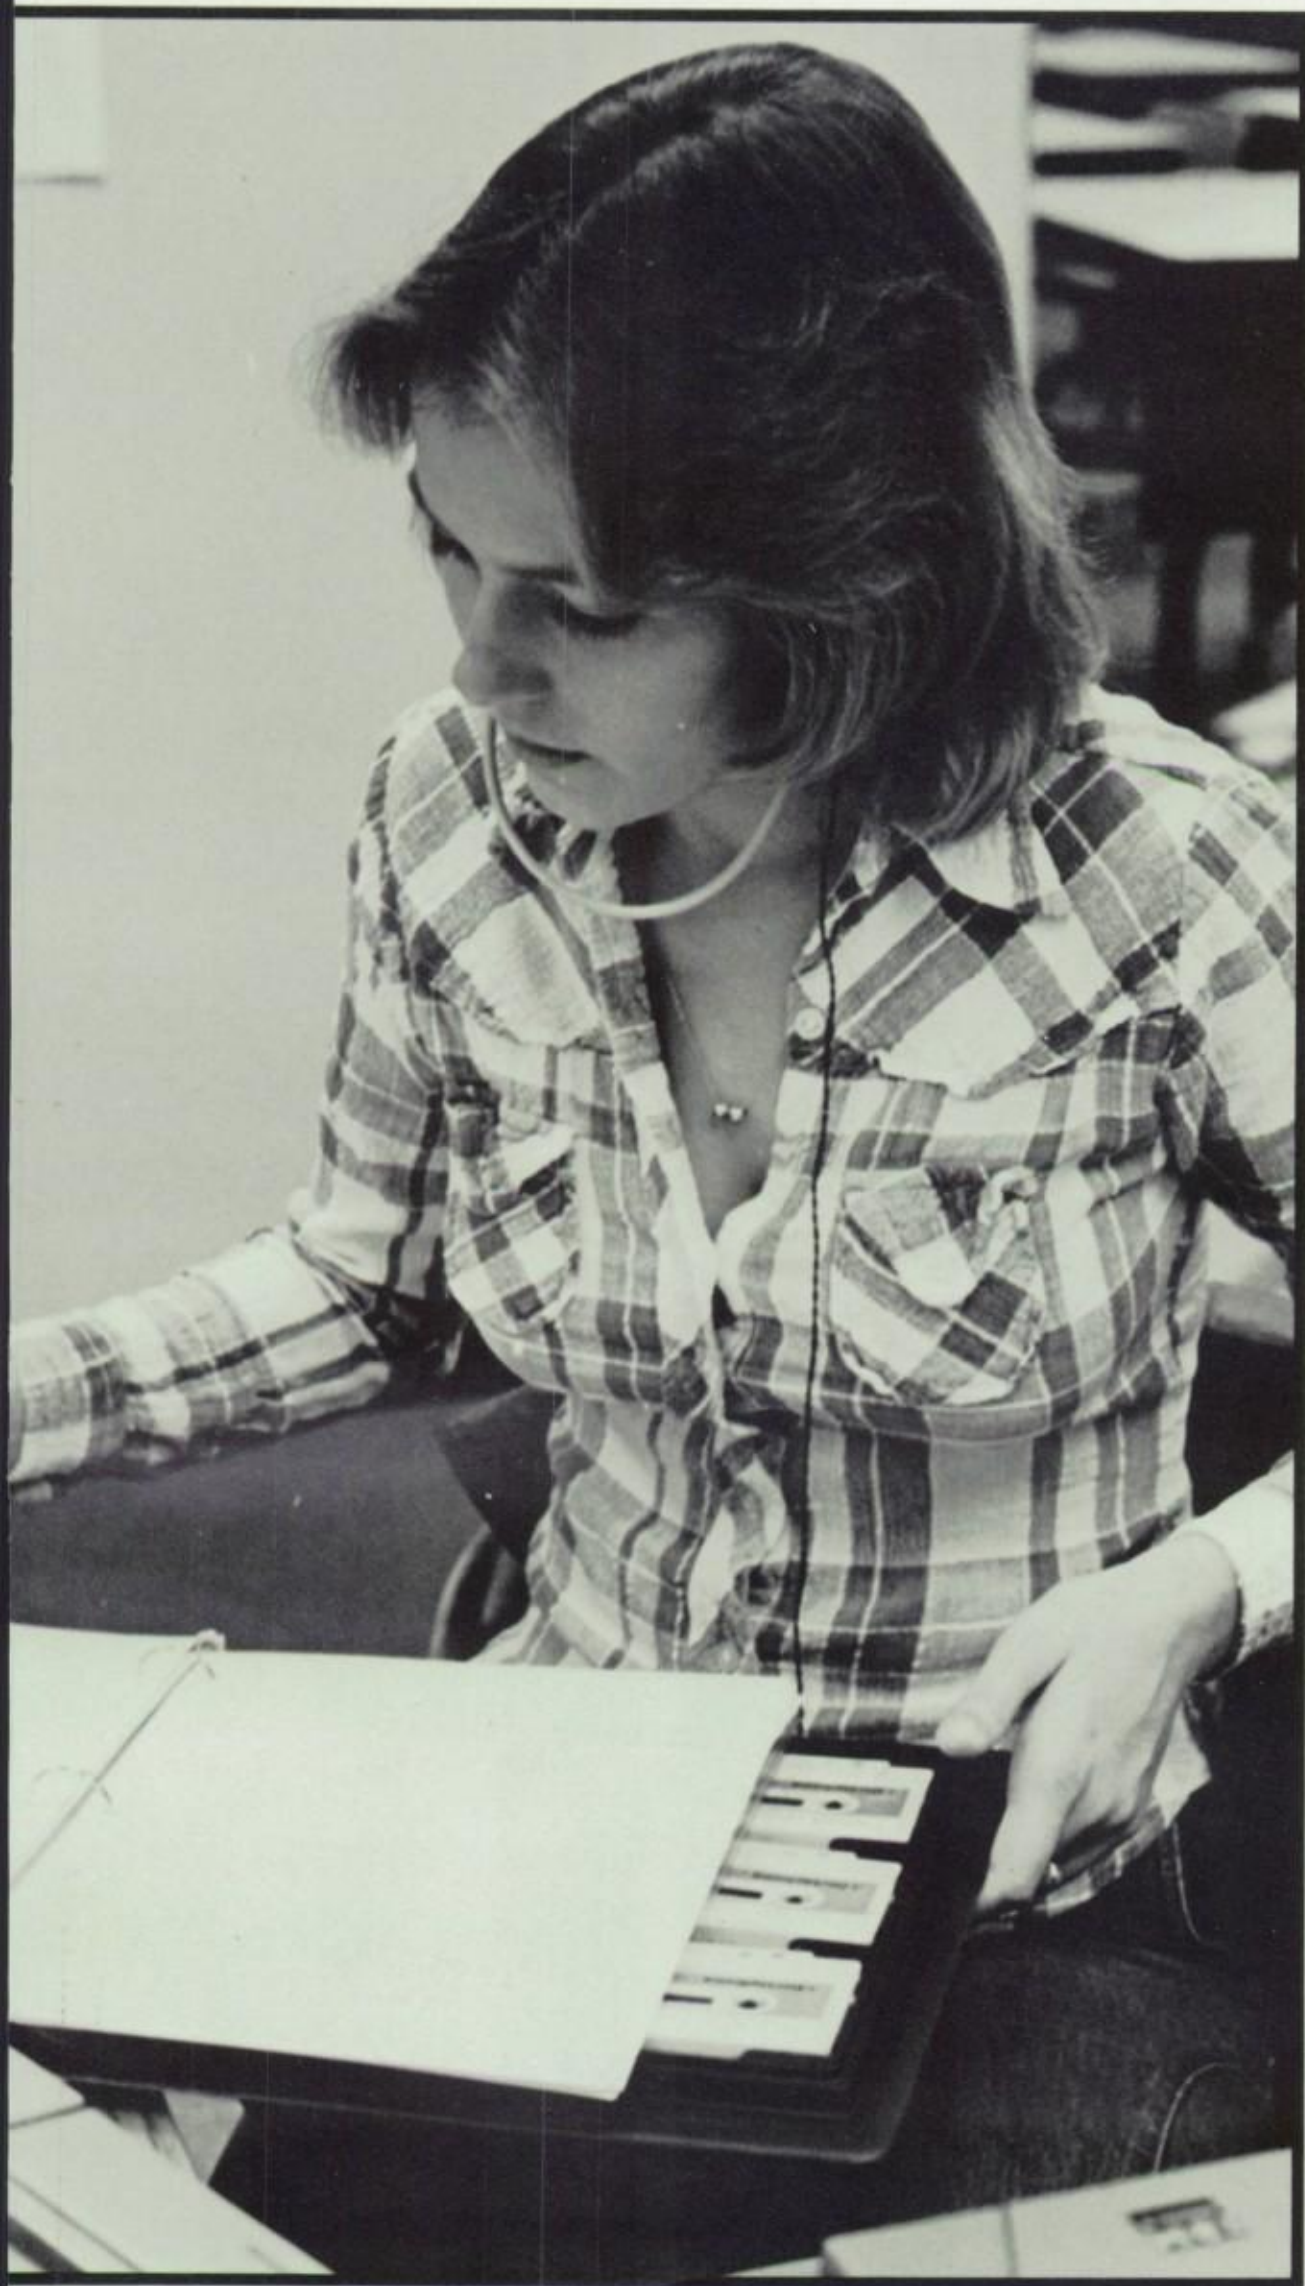

On Thursday, August 25, 1977, the Columbia High School season began with a zest of enthusiasm. Schedules were set, classes assigned, different activities planned, faculty and students were reacquainted — and another year had begun.

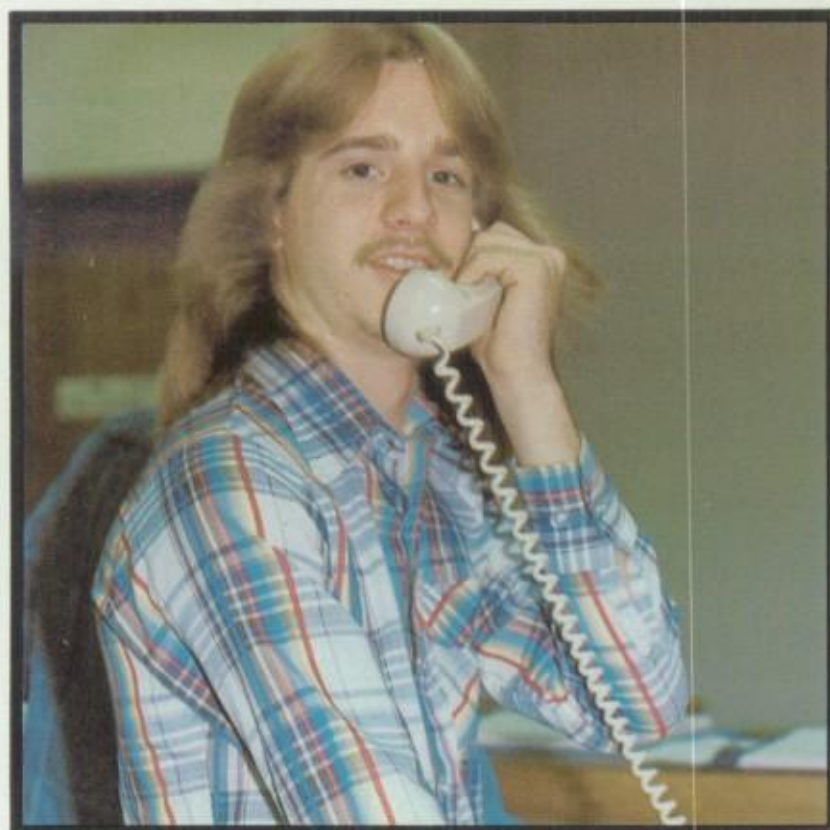

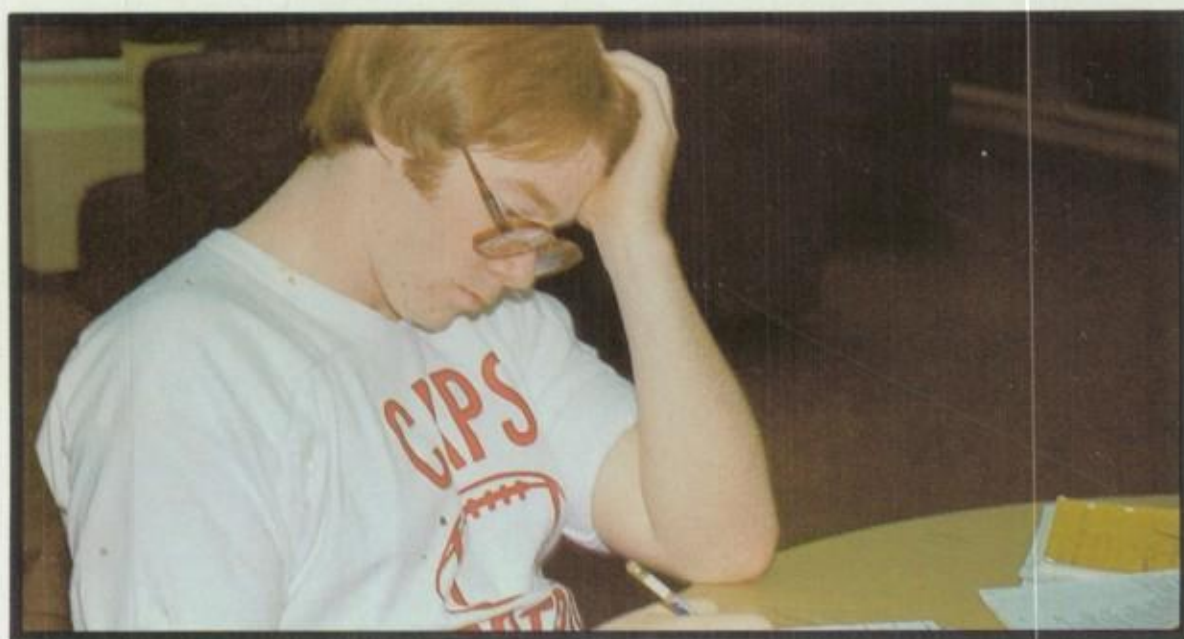

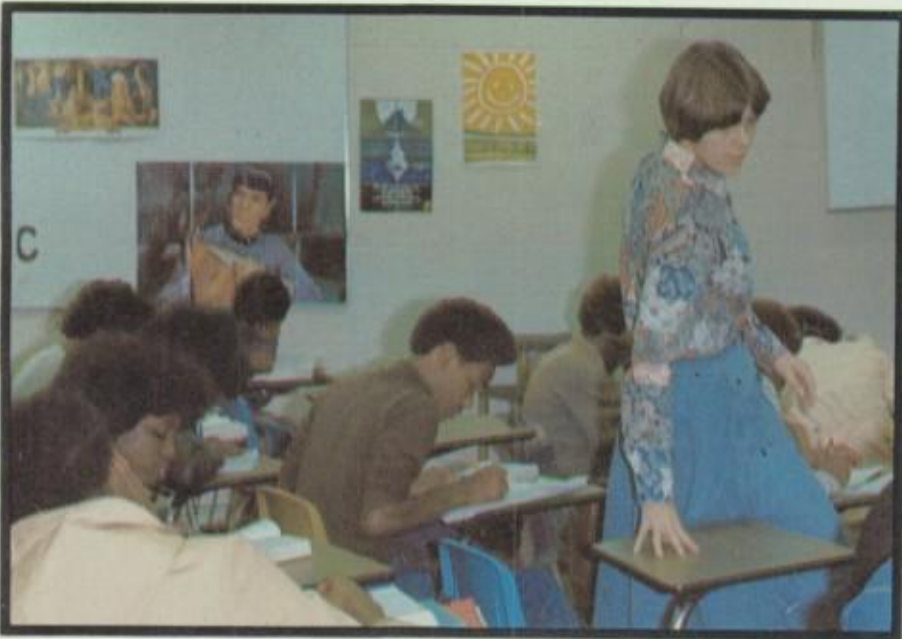

CAPITALS IN ACTION!

Learning New Things

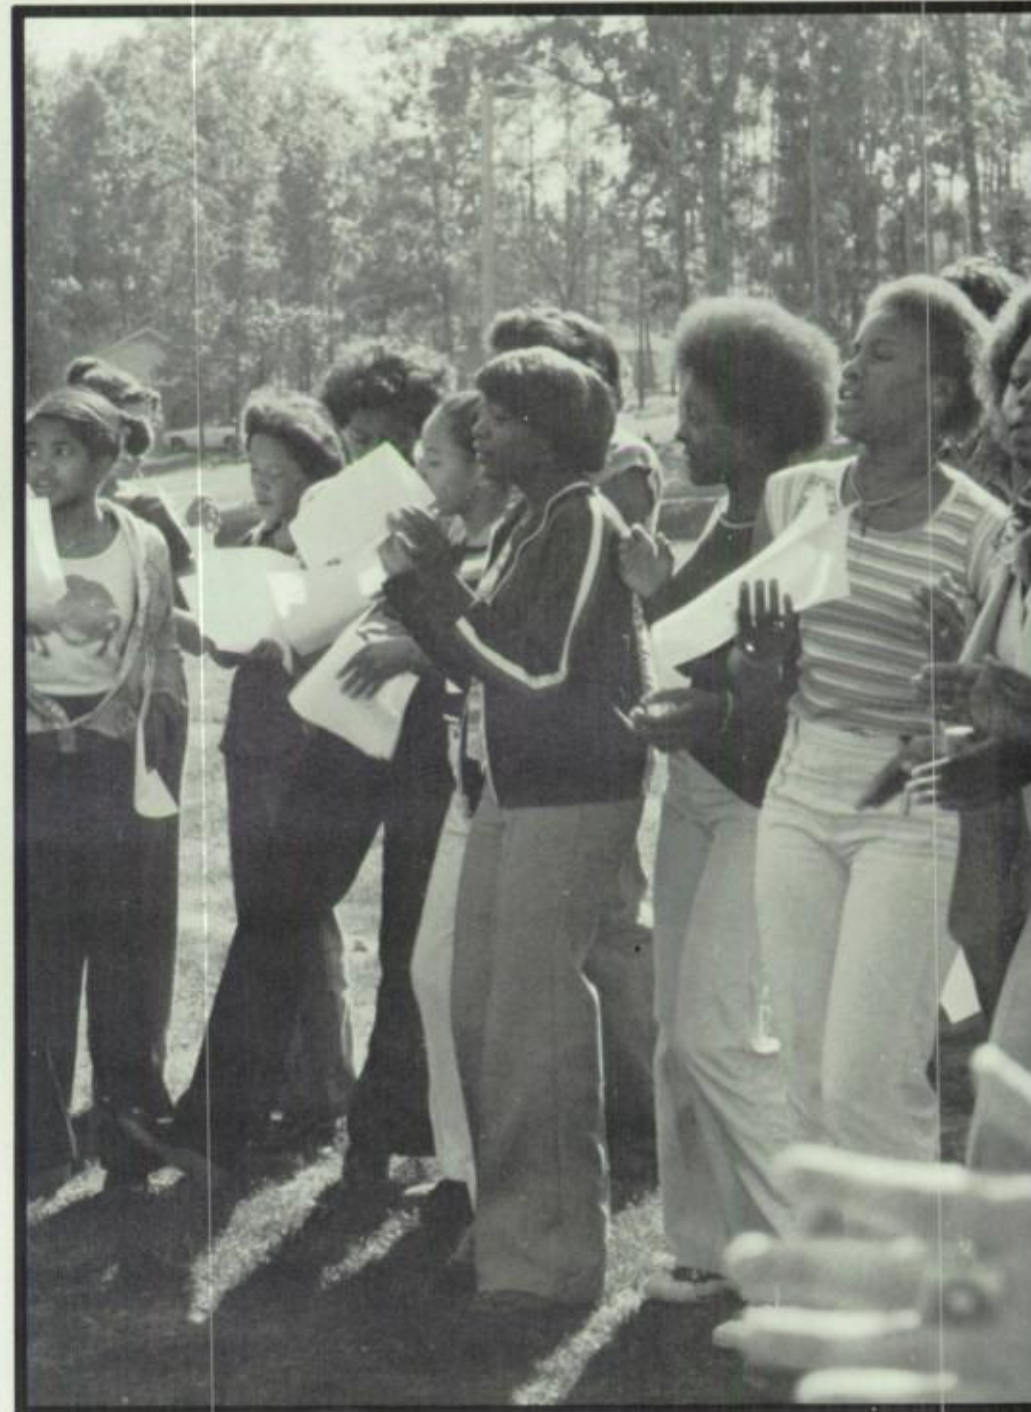

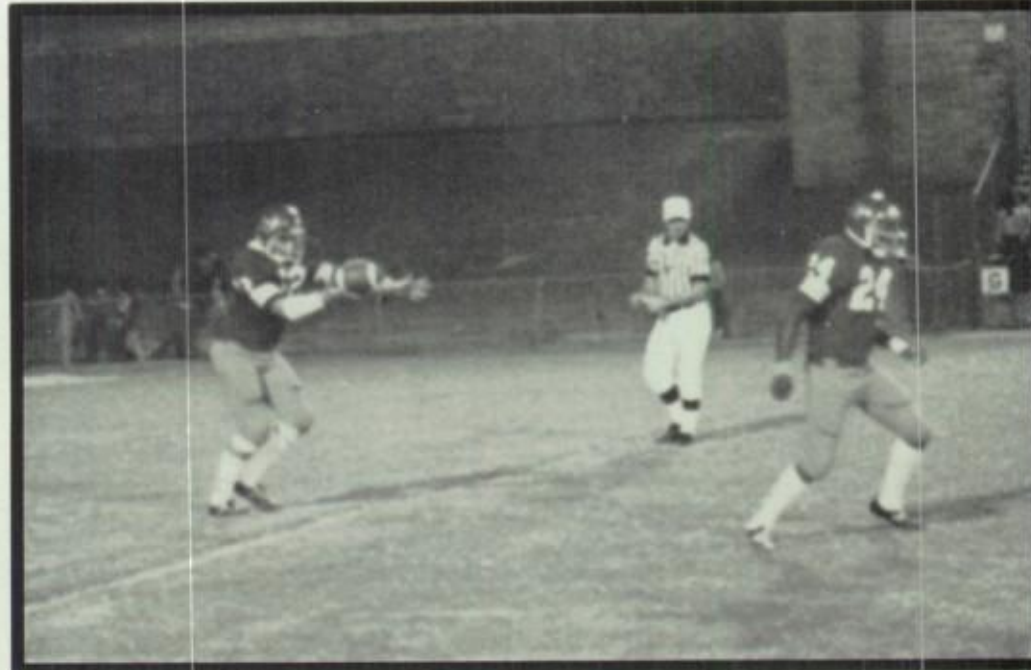

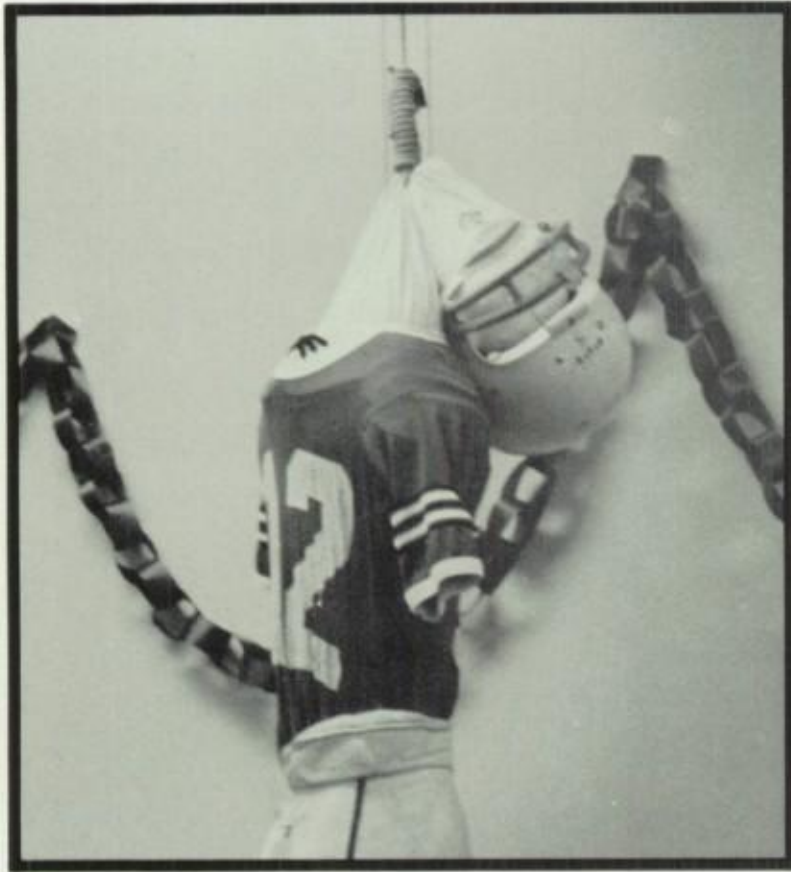

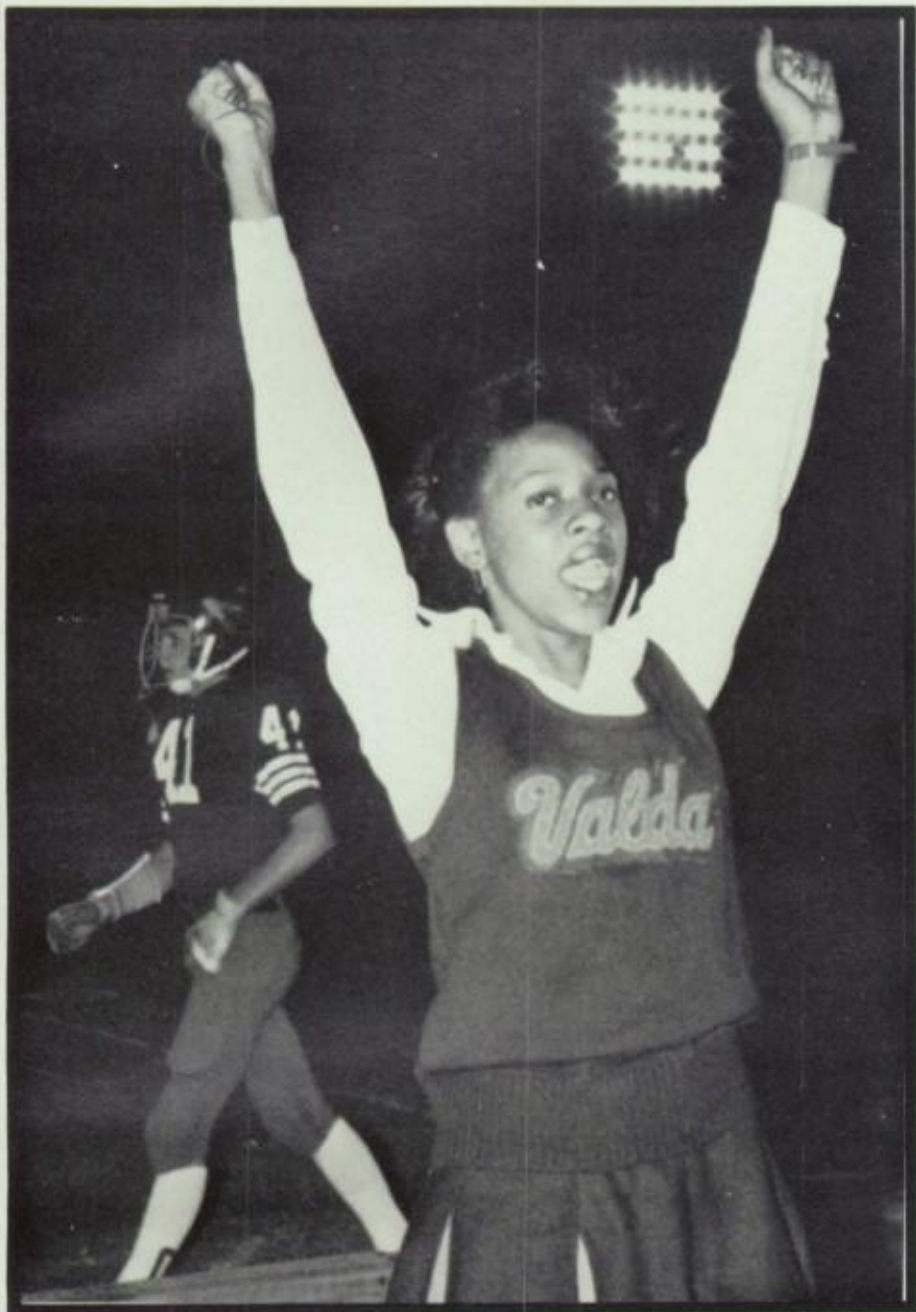

Each new day, students, teachers, the Administration and the faculty members learned more and more about each other. They learned how to listen to what they had once ignored, respect what they had at one time treated with disrespect, and accept the things that could not be changed.

A Season For The No. 1 Caps

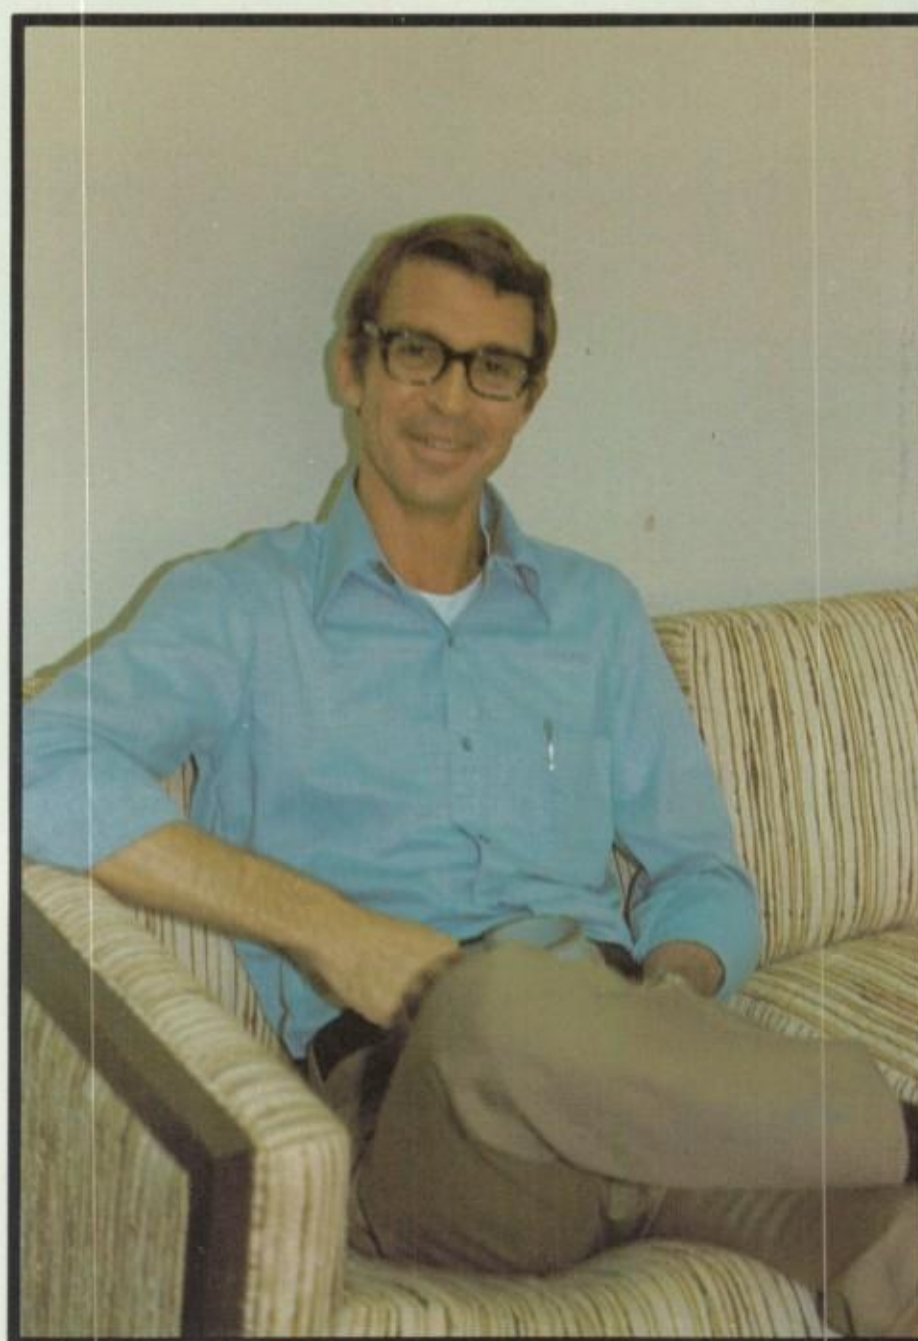

In spite of all the changes that were made, and the new rules that were put into action; each day still brought a feeling of togetherness and excitement. Indeed, this 1977-78 school year has shown us that "to everything there is a season" and this was the season for the No. 1 CAPITALS!!

THE LAST OF A DYING RACE

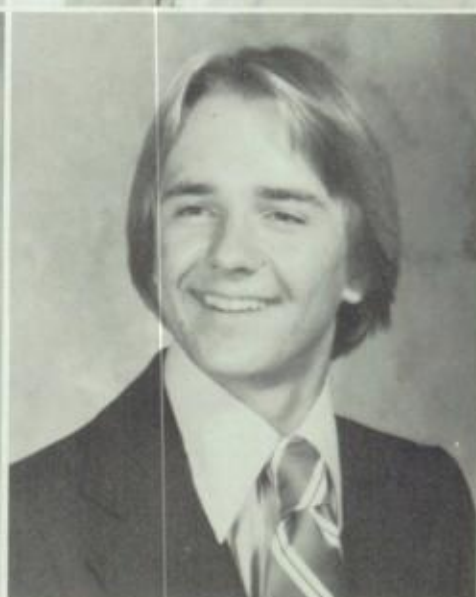

We, the graduating class of 1978, have at times been put down for our feeling for the old Columbia High School. It has been said, "it is just a building," but to us it is more than that. It is a special place where we first experienced the age-old traditions which have always and will always be a part of Columbia High School. Therefore, we will forever treasure the memories we received as the last class to have been a part of the old and the new schools.

Tomorrow Never Comes Except —

In Terms Of What We Do Today

We look back and remember the happy times, feeling the rewards of hard work and dedication.

At times we have felt all alone, isolated in the midst of a crowd. Our existence has been one of constant new beginnings and continuous endings filling our lives and our memories. It was our year, molded by the vast and diverse character of who we were and what we had become.

We chose as our class colors, yellow and white with the yellow rose as our flower . . . Tomorrow never comes except in terms of what we do today.

MEMORIES

Memories, treasured in our hearts and in our minds,
Echoing the past through the corridors of time.

Memories of holding hands and school life days
remembering the good times past,
And laughing eyes and football games,
And being the graduating senior at last.

But most of all the making it through with smiles and hugs between friends and you.

Memories . . . Memories . . .
Memories of the way we were.

CAPS — 14 DREHER — 6

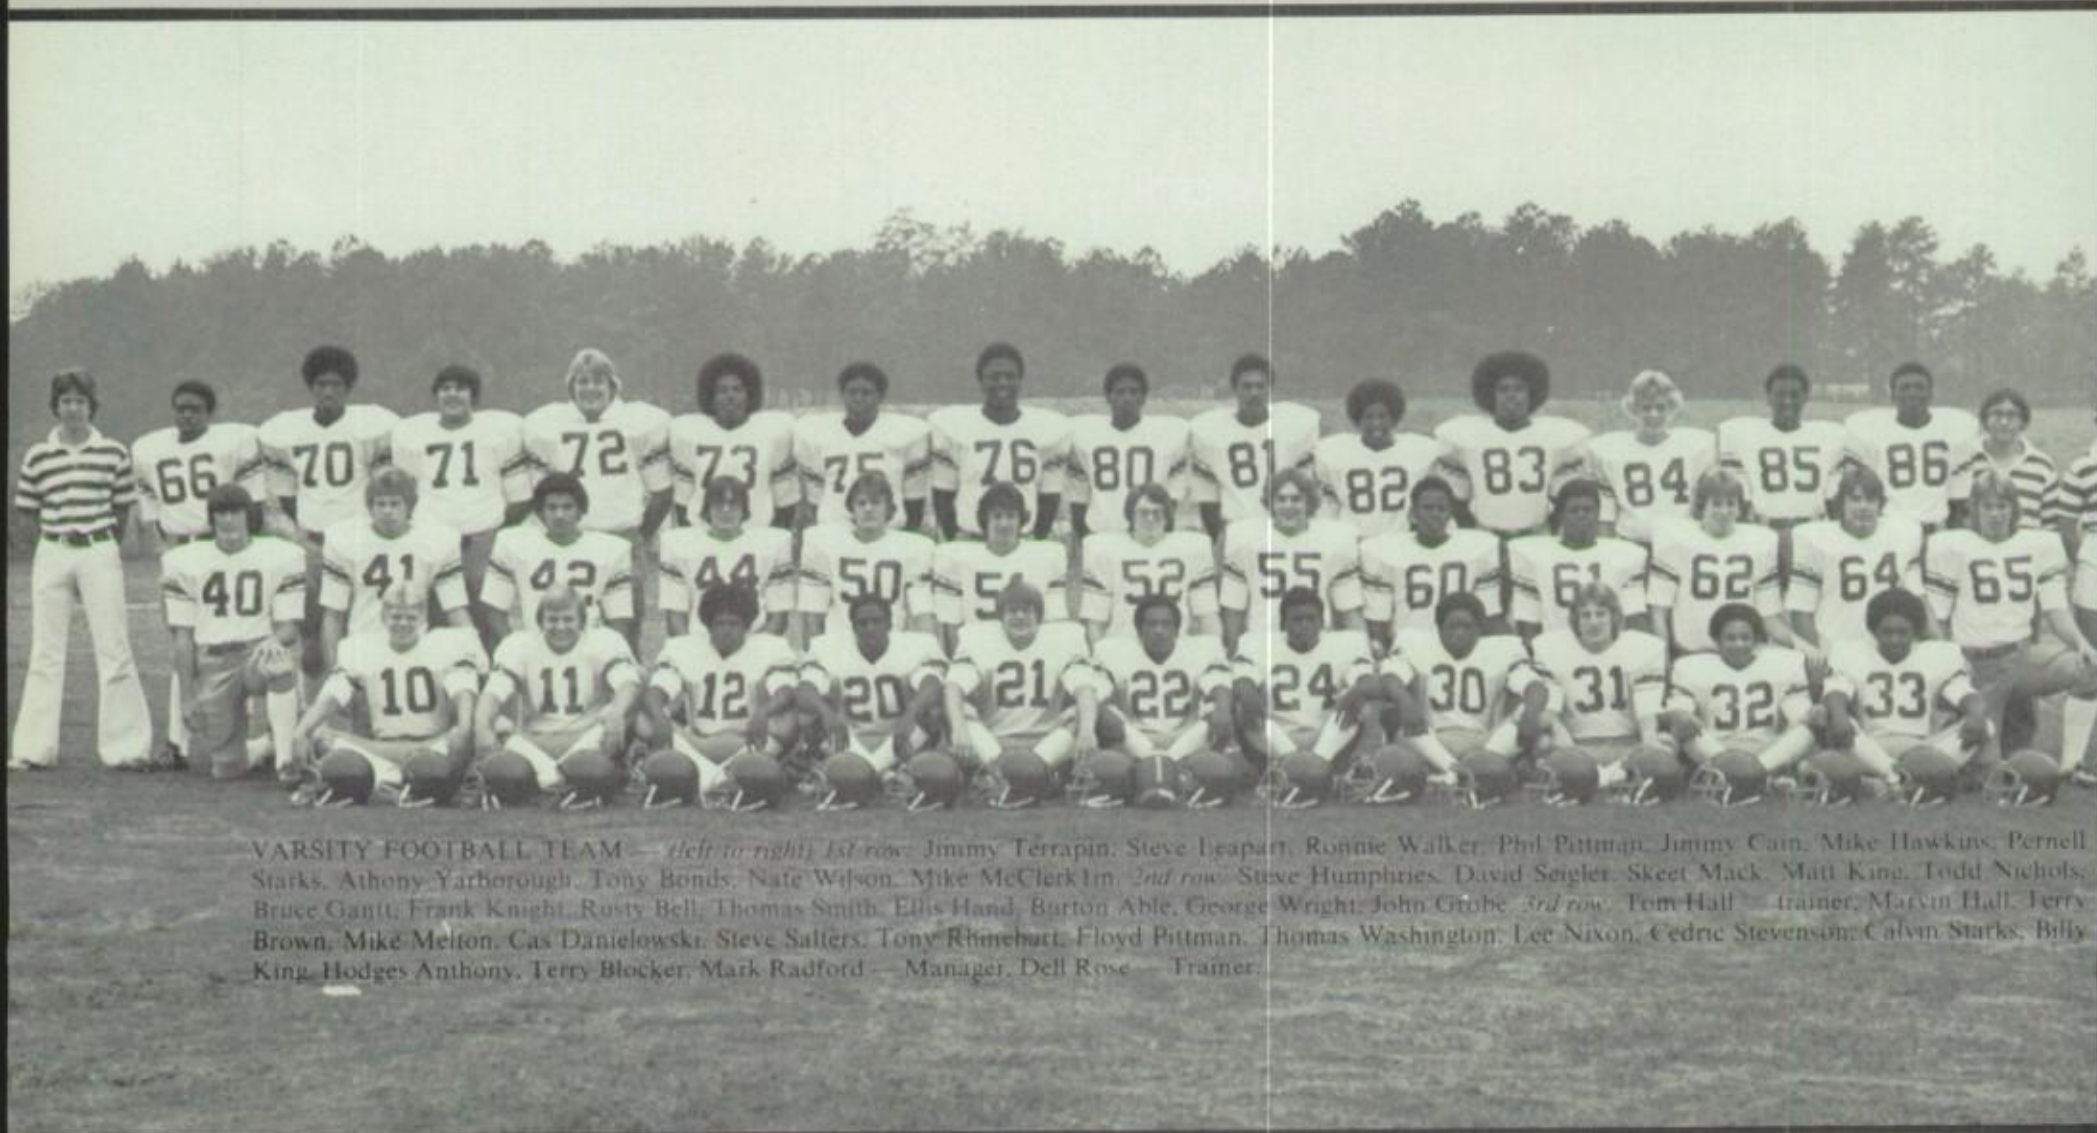

Behind the heroic plays of Terry Blocker and the running of Mike Hawkins, the Caps were able to claim this victory over Dreher in a wild region opener. Hawkins, who was the game's leading rusher, scored the first touchdown on a 29 yard run. Blocker kicked the PAT kick to give the Caps a 7-0 lead with 5:26 in the first quarter. With 3:00 remaining in the quarter Dreher came over from the five but the PAT failed. In the second half the Caps scored again when Steve Leapart ran a six-yard play for a touchdown and Cas Danielowski added the extra point.

CAPS — 28 LOWER RICHLAND — 6

The Caps now 4-1 dominated action in the second half of this game to thump Lower Richland. The teams traded first period touchdowns and swapped one abortive threat each in the second quarter before the Capitals took control of the game. Pernell Starks picked up a key first down that set up a touchdown from Steve Leapart to Terry Blocker. Cas Danielowski converted and Caps went ahead 7-6. In the third period Jimmy Cain scored from two yards out. In the fourth quarter Terry Blocker picked off a pass and raced down the sidelines for another score. To ice the score George Wright intercepted a pass and powered 23 yards untouched.

CAPS — 7 FLORA — 0

Pernell Starks found Terry Blocker behind the Flora secondary and tossed a 51-yard touchdown pass early in the third period to give the Caps a 7-0 victory in a region clash. The touchdown play decided the outcome of a defensive battle. The win boosted the Caps record to 5-1 on the year and 3-0 in regional competition. Although Flora threatened twice the Caps defense maintained them and the Falcons never got closer than the Cap's 44.

CAPS — 21 EAU CLAIRE — 6

Optimistic Columbia capitalized on the Shamrocks mistake to capture a victory Homecoming night. The Caps took advantage of David Seigler's fumble recovery at Eau Claire's 14, where Pernell Starks later scored. Cas Danielowski's PAT kick was successful and the Caps had a 7-0 lead in the first period. Caps scored again on a punt return by Blocker. Caps now 6-1 overall and 4-1 in region play.

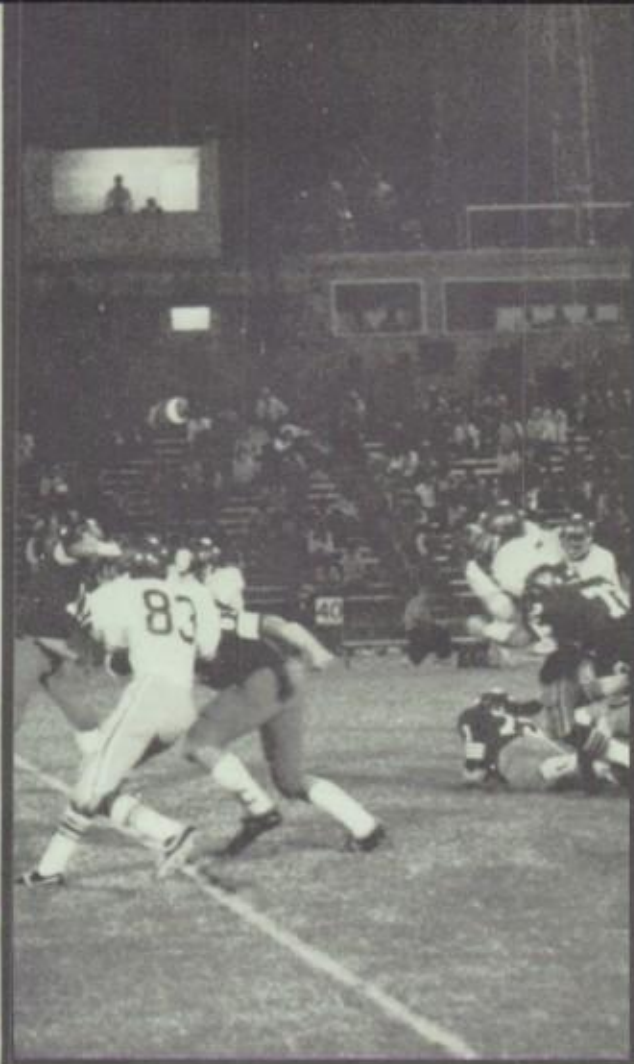

CAPS — 24 NEWBERRY — 13

Columbia whipped Newberry in a non-conference game. Terry Blocker set up the first score with a punt return to the Bulldog's 34, intercepted two passes which set up the stage for two other scores, and he caught a touchdown pass from Steve Leapart to round out a great evening. The victory boosted the Cap's record to 7-1 on the year and marked an important step along the road to its second straight playoff appearance.

CAPS — 21 SPRING VALLEY — 31

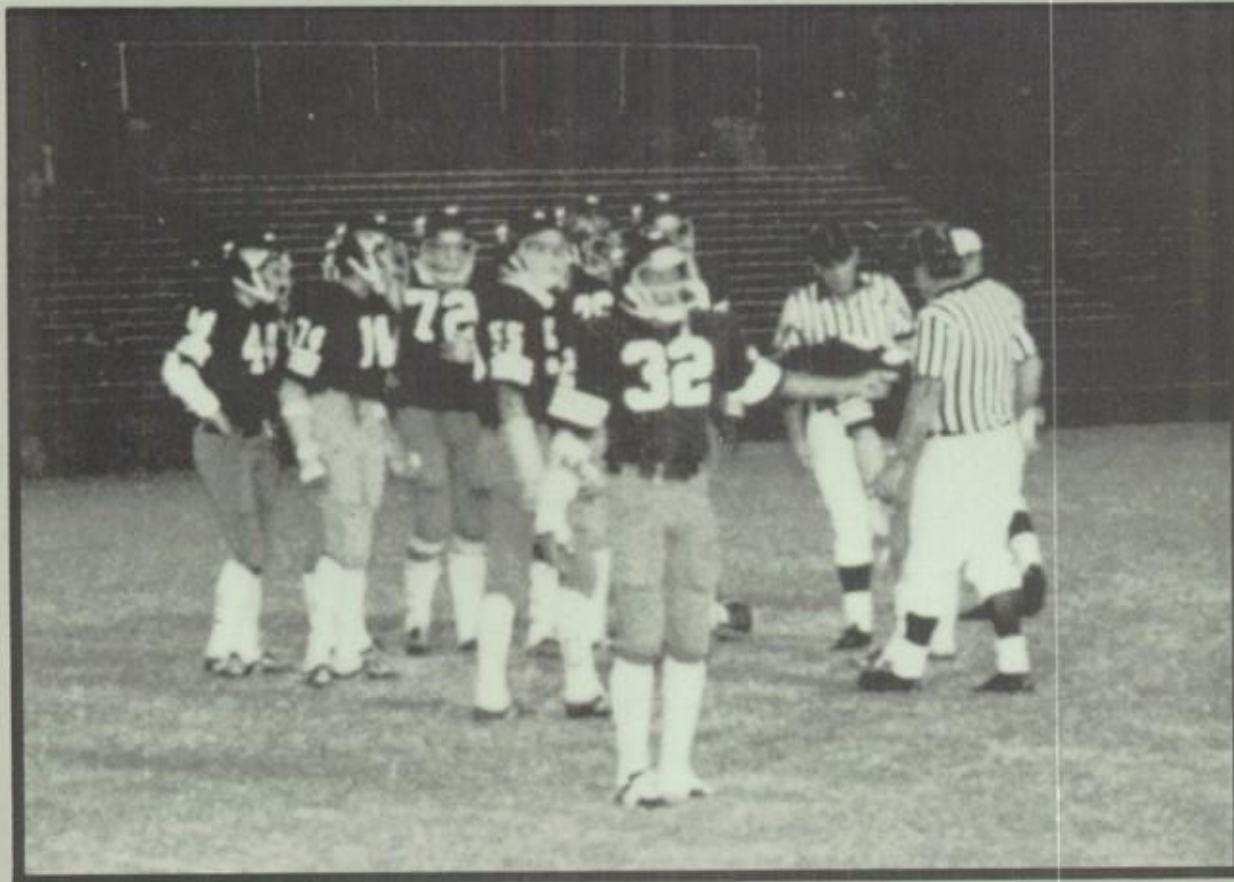

Spring Valley, its ground game eating up yardage in big clunks, repulsed each Caps' rally bid. It appeared the Caps had a break when the Vikings had third and 21, but they completed a pass for 27 yards and a first down, and hacked a victory for Region 4AAAA Crown. Vikings went on to the play offs as the regions top birth.

Blocker . . . Blocker . . . Blocker . . .

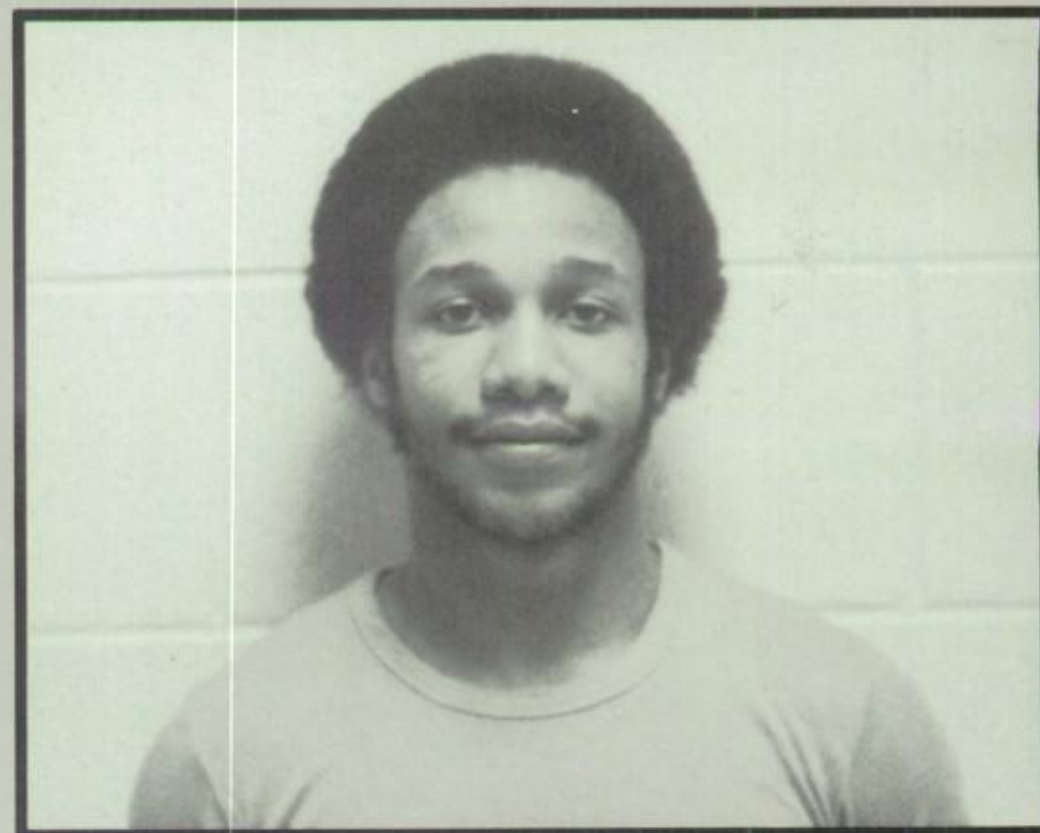

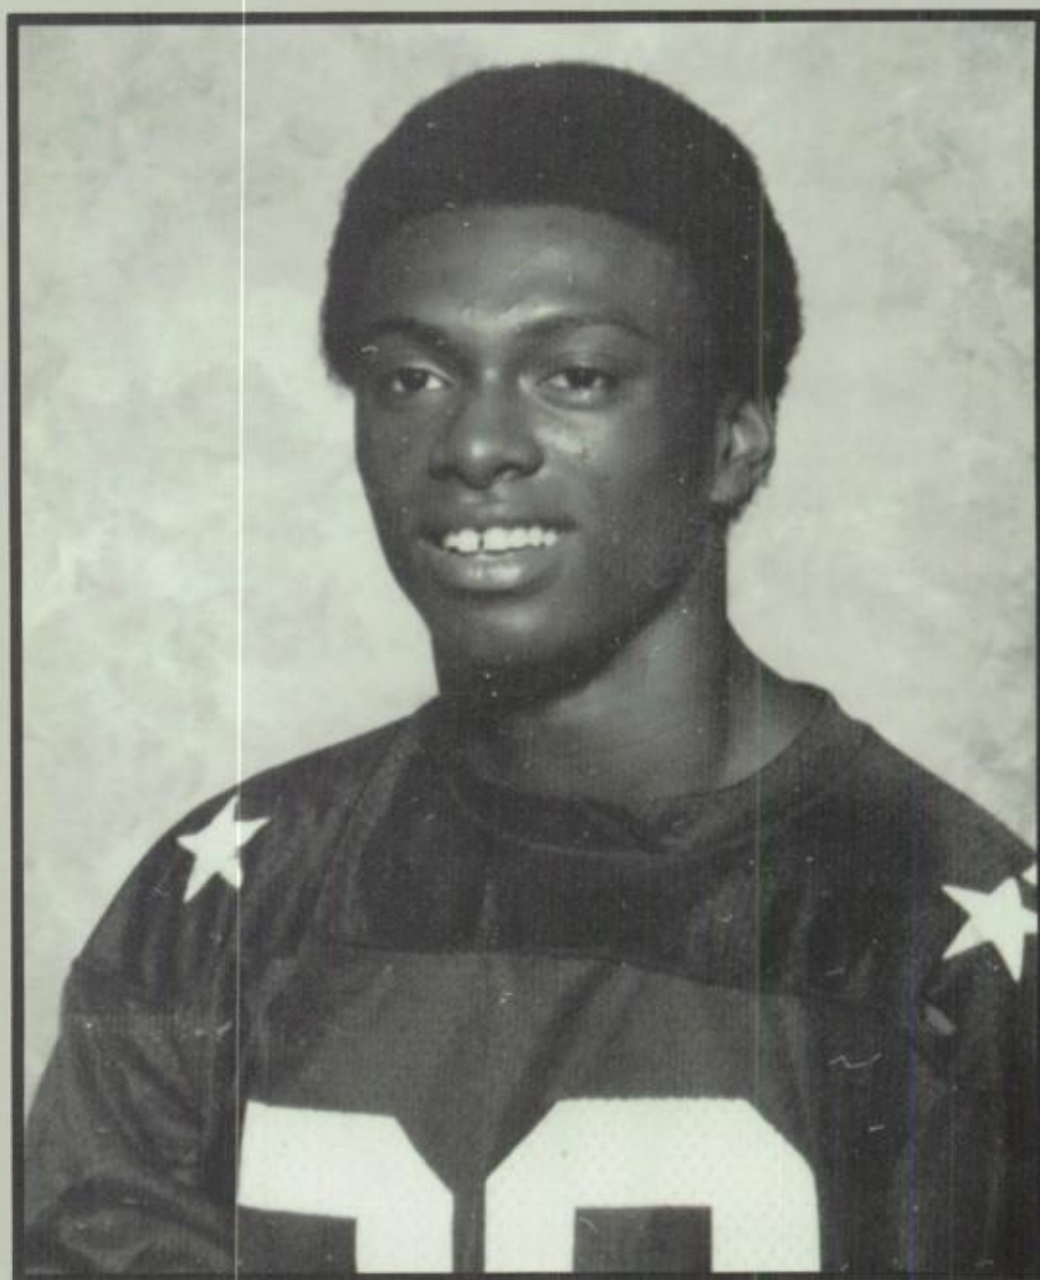

During the 1977-78 Football Season the most popular name around Columbia was Terry Blocker. This year the Cap's defensive and offensive threat was named BACK OF THE YEAR by the COLUMBIA RECORD. Other awards given to the star back were: BACK OF THE WEEK, C.H.S. MOST VALUABLE BACK, 4-AAAA BACK OF THE YEAR, PRE-AMERICAN TEAM. Blocker was named to the 1977 Shrine Bowl where he was co-captain of the team. Terry's outstanding plays enabled him to make the All Area Team Offensive and Defense.

Basketball

COLUMBIA — 70 CAMDEN — 59

Columbia exploded late in the fourth quarter and went on to down Camden. The home club scored 15 straight points in the final three minutes to overcome a 57-55 deficit and claim the win. Walter Hughey converted a 3-point play and then stole the ball and canned a layup to ignite the decisive Columbia spree. With 1:27 left, Terry Blocker was fouled during a jump ball situation and Camden's coach was later called for a technical. Blocker went to the line and made all four shots for a 66-57 Cap lead to wrap up the victory. The quard tandem of Hughey and Grover Phillips paced the winners with 17 points each with the majority of the shots coming from long range jumpers.

COLUMBIA — 67 EAU CLAIRE — 85

Eau Claire bombarded the Caps in a 4-AAAA Region match. The CAPS jumped out to a quick 16-8 lead with Walter Hughey hitting from outside and Terry Blocker controlling the boards in the inside. Hughey finished the game with 28 points and Blocker scored 13. The Shamrocks defenders cut off the CAPS scoring drives and the CAPS could find no-one to assist Hughey's hot hand in the second half. The full court press caused the CAPS to make numerous turn overs and the Shamrocks capitalized.

COLUMBIA — 86 LEXINGTON — 61

Everybody got in on the scoring as the Capitals put on a sperling performance to crush the Wildcats. Coach Bartone substituted frequently and the CAPS popped cotton all night. Terry Blocker led the scoring with 29 and he also pulled down 12 rebounds. The game was never in doubt as the CAPITALS raced to a 26-14 first quarter lead and never tailed. Travis Blocker and Grover Phillips scored 10 points each to trail the 29 hit by Terry Blocker. The CAPS reeled off 10 unanswered points to grab a 14-8 advantage with 2:54 left in the opening quarter. Walter Hughey hit a jumper. Phillips scored from the corner. Terry Blocker backed a rebound. Harold Jackson hit a jumper and Hughey scored from the outside to finish the scoring surge.

1977-78 VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM — Donald Dantzler, Walter Hughey, Chris Dixon, Terry Blocker, Travis Blocker, Reggie Hopkins, Jerome Dickerson, Dennis Belton, Danny Miglotisi, Harold Jackson, Stan Seabrook, Roger Richardson, and Grover Phillips.

COLUMBIA — 58 AIKEN — 56

Chris Dixon and Harold Jackson scored consecutive baskets to push the CAPS out front for good as they held off late-charging Aiken. Dixon's basket with three minutes remaining and Jackson's jumper from the left of the key with 2:32 on the clock gave the CAPITALS the lead for good. Grover Phillips led all scores with 24 and Travis Blocker pumped in 15 for the CAPS.

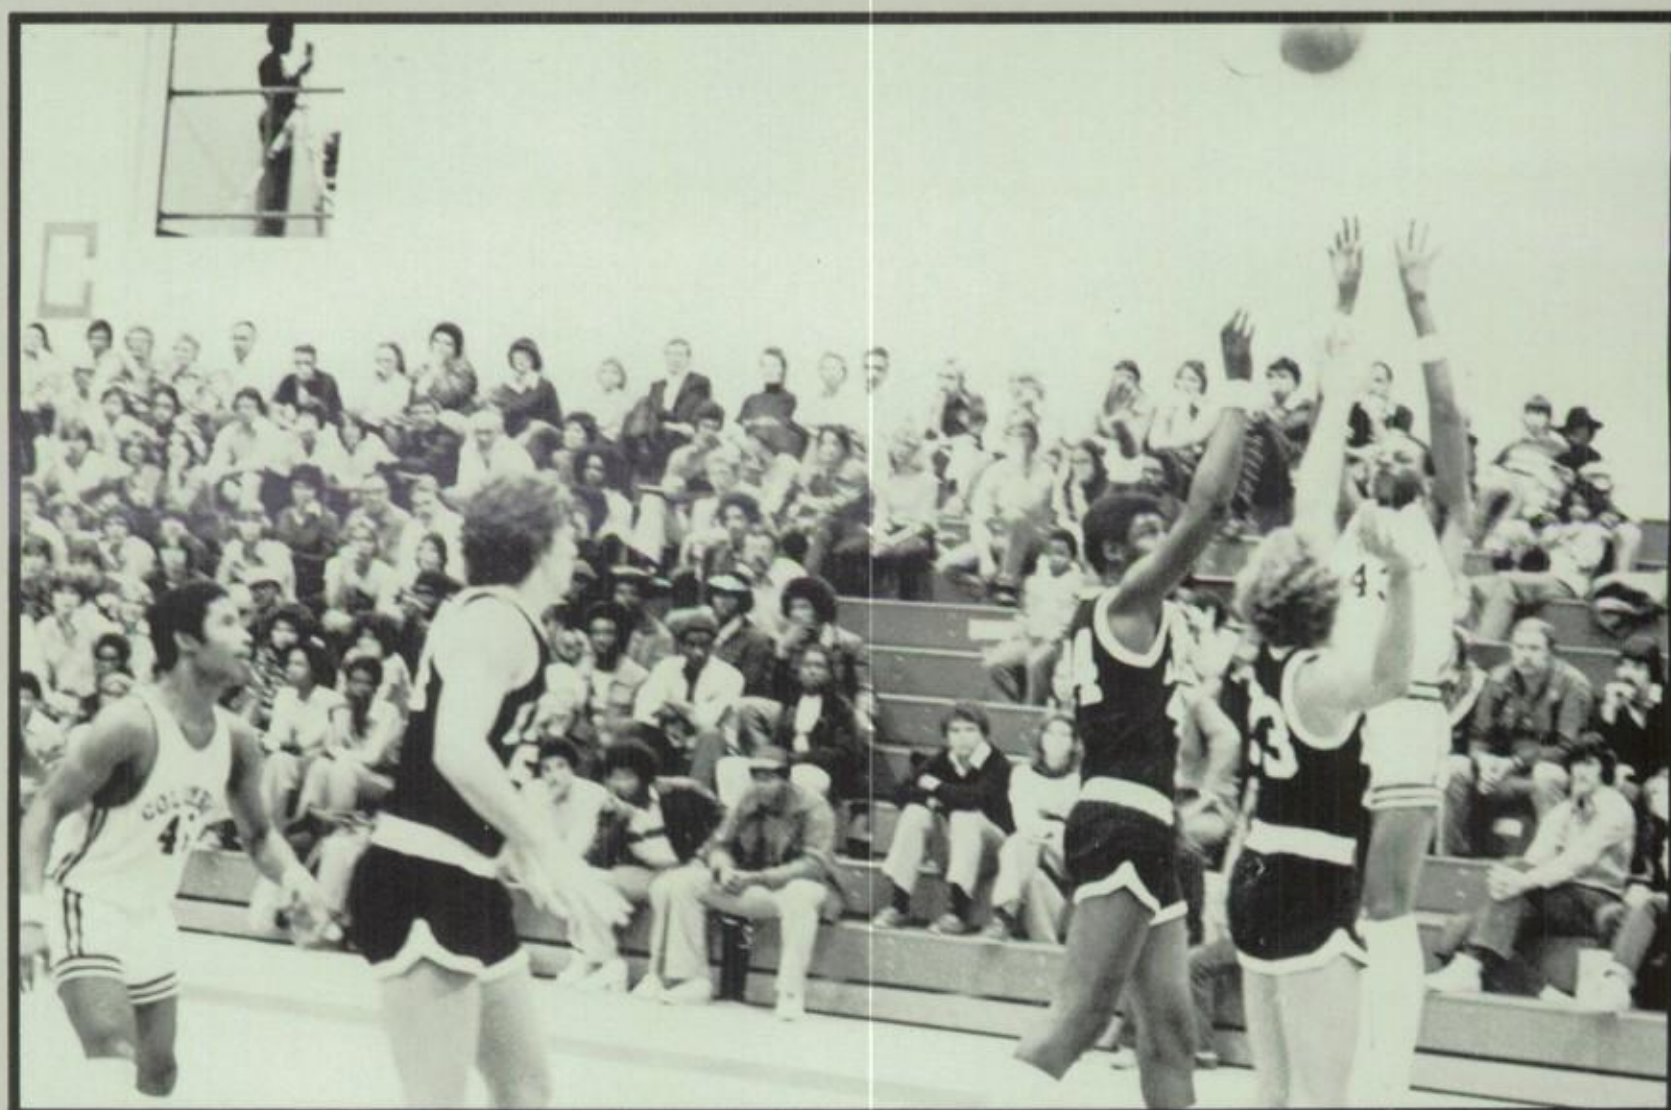

COLUMBIA — 68 LEXINGTON — 55

In this first meet with the Wildcats the Caps rallied from a 13 point deficit late in the second quarter and then pulled away in the third period as they ripped the Wildcats. Lexington club had a 29-16 lead with 5:47 in the first half and then scored with 3:07 remaining to make it a 31-20 lead. But Columbia scored the next 10 points with Harold Jackson doing the inside damage and Walter Hughey doing the outside work. Hughey's 18-footer with seven seconds left in the half tied things at 34. Lexington was taller, but had trouble blocking out against the shorter and quicker CAPS. Hughey and Phillips managed 16 points each to lead the scorers. Travis Blocker's rebound basket at 6:02 of the third. Donald Dantzler's score from the lane and baskets by Phillips, Reggie Hopkins in close made it 46-36 and all but decided the issue.

COLUMBIA — 72 DREHER — 79

Dreher used 9-4 scoring surge to defeat the CAPS in a 4-AAAA thriller. The Devils led 70-63 with 2:46 remaining but the CAPS hit five straight baskets. Grover Phillips tip in at 2:32 and Chris Dixon's 3 point play pulled Columbia within 70-68 with 2:16 left. But the Devil scored to overturn the CAPS. Terry Block hit 21. Grover Phillips 18. Chris Dixon came off the bench to hit an important 3 pointer.

Determined Capitals Revealing That Well- Known Capital Pride.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball Team has had its problems this season, but had managed to win some exciting games, like an overtime game win against Dreher. Of the twelve players five were seniors. They were Cindy Meetze, Cindy Camp, Violette Hunter, Janet Kearse, and Kim Broadway. Because of an injury, Kathy Davenport was unable to continue play this season.

COLUMBIA — 34 CAMDEN — 44

Cindy Camp scored 12 points as the Girl's were defeated by the Bulldogs. The game was close until the fourth quarter when the Bulldog girls went into an unstoppable shooting spree. Kim Broadway and Violette Hunter both scored 6 points, Libby Jeffcoat scored 8 and Michelle Clifton scored 2 for the CAPS.

COLUMBIA — 35 EAU CLAIRE — 56

The Eau Claire girls jumped out into an early 12-8 first period lead and never trailed as they defeated the CAPS. Kim Broadway lead the girls in scoring with 15 points, Violette Hunter hit 14, Michelle Hendrix pumped in 4, and Cindy Camp contributed 2.

COLUMBIA — 17 LEXINGTON — 82

Lexington took this victory in a first meet with the Wildcats after the Wildcats jumped out to a 20-0 first period lead. The CAPETTES had a hard time scoring as the Wildcats girls continued to out shoot and rebound them. Kim Broadway connected 3 times to have 6 points, Cindy Camp hit 4, Violette Hunter 2, Michelle Clifton 2, Cheri Terrapin 2, and Libby Jeffcoat 1.

COLUMBIA — 30 LEXINGTON — 80

In the second meet with the Wildcats the Wildcats placed five players in double figures as they remained undefeated against the CAPS. The CAPS trailed through-out the game and never came close to the hot hand scoring of the Wildcats. In the losing cause Kim Broadway pumped in 17 big points for the CAPS.

COLUMBIA — 33 AIKEN — 64

The Aiken traveled a long ways as they defeated the girls in a tough first quarter. The girls could not maintain the shooting and Aiken began to blow them out. In this game the scoring spread, each girl scored.

COLUMBIA — 46 DREHER — 55

Kim Broadway hit 15, Violette Hunter hit 9, Cindy Camp hit 8, Michelle Clifton 3, Michelle Hendrix 5, and Libby Jeffcoat 6 as it wasn't enough to defeat the Blue Devils in a close game.

Volleyball

The Volleyball Team ended the season with eight wins and seven losses. The team consisted of thirteen players, three of whom were seniors. These three seniors, Kim Broadway, Kathy Davenport, and Violette Hunter, were the ALL-STARS on the team.

Debra Ruff was chosen as MOST IMPROVED PLAYER, Kathy Davenport and Violette Hunter were awarded the LEADERSHIP AWARD, and Cheri Terrapin was selected as MOST VALUABLE PLAYER, for the 1977 season. Michelle Taylor was the official scorekeeper for the CAPITALS. The Caps hosted the Region 4-AAAA Playoffs where they finished as fourth runner ups.

Gymnastics

The Gymnastic Team of 1978 had one of the best seasons and records in Columbia's history. The team consisted of sixteen players. The only two seniors on the team, Chandra Davis and Patty Darlington have helped their team to accomplish their victories. In team competition the CAPS had a difficult schedule but always managed to maintain a high point average. The team is very young and with Chandra and Patty being the only seniors, look for the Team to perform even better in 1979.

Band

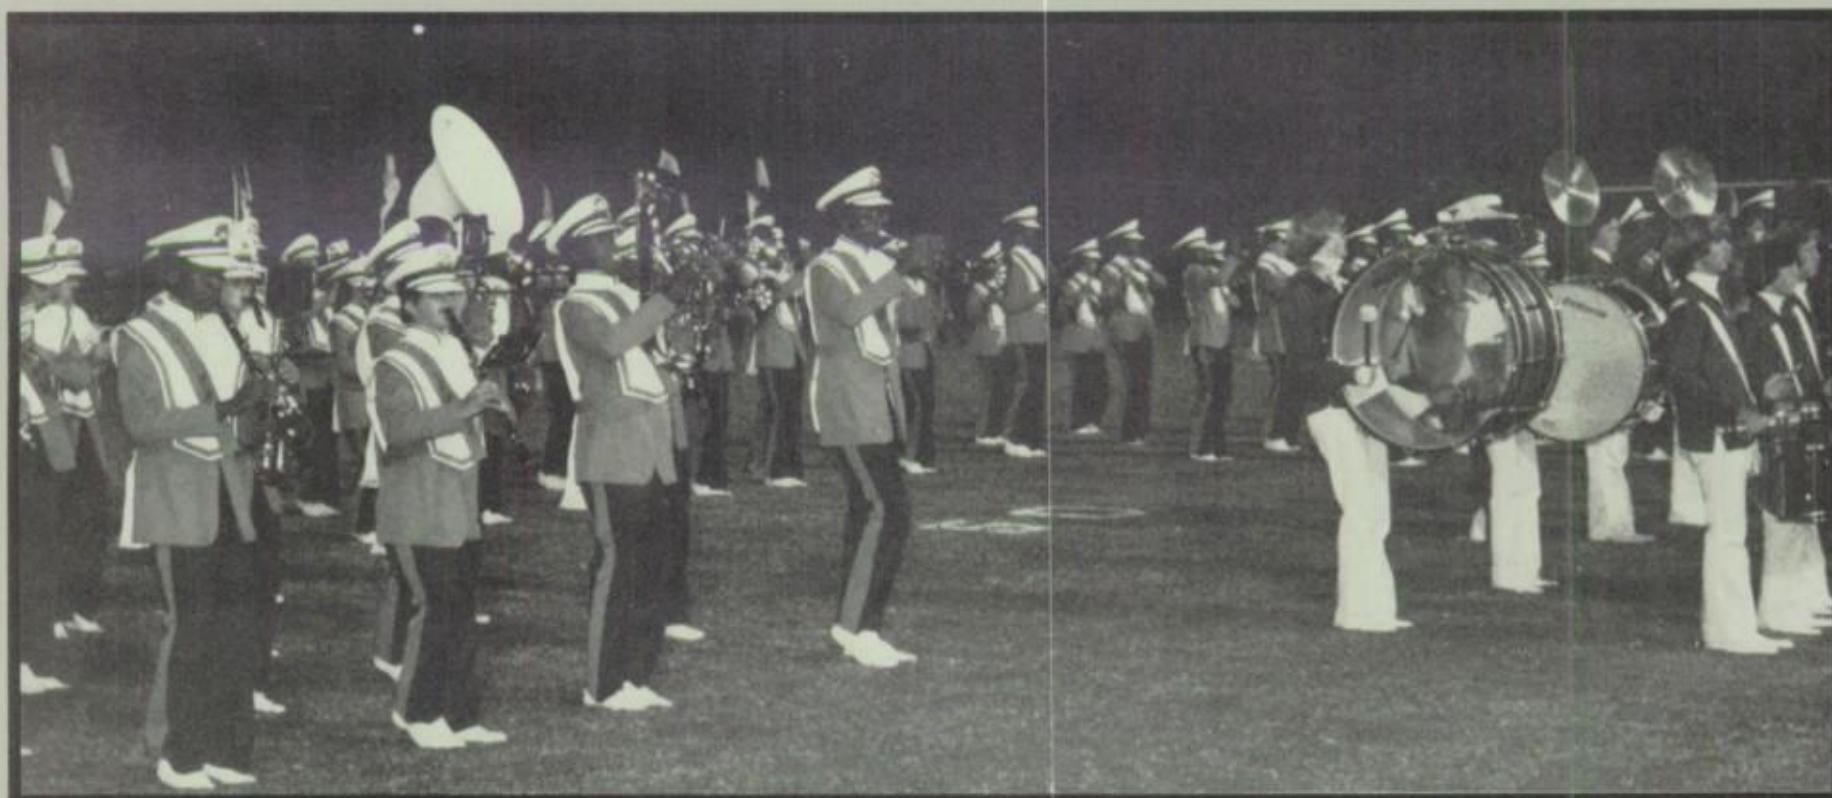

This group of musicians performed various types of music for the student body this year. They presented along with the chorus the Christmas program of 1977 which was very successful. Because of Jeffery Hunter and Wendell Jumper's outstanding talents, they were chosen to play for the University of South Carolina Marching Band. Jeffery played the trumpet and Wendell played the saxophone. For the audience entertainment before and during halftime of the basketball games, there was the PREP BAND. The PREP BAND members were: Carol Bowman, Pam Bynoe, Wayne Hamilton, Felicia Scott, Veronica Smith, Beth Cooper, Wendell Jumper, Stan Little, Hahns Tueber, Jeff Davis, Belly Sandel, Mike Highland, Michelle Hendris, Mathew Smith, Dwayne Cofield, Jeff Hunter, Cindy McCowen, Scott Plexico, Rob Doyle, Wayne Grubbs, Bruce Robertson, Mike Danielson, John Doudoukjian.

Coaches

The Coaches of Columbia High School have done outstanding jobs in training the minds of their athletes of today for the world of challenges of tomorrow. The coaches have taught their players to perform their athletic talents in the sport or sports they are successful in. The causes of success for the sports teams at Columbia are that the players rid themselves of selfish attitudes and develop their minds to team attitudes. The coaches also stress that clowns don't belong on the fields, courts, or floors but in the circus and that their players should always be ready to display their discipline. They have taught their players to strive for the Number One position at all times. The best motto an athlete can follow is: ONE SHOULD STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE FOR EQUAL IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH!!!

A Season Of Capital Pride

Homecoming week began early with preparations to get the WHOLE student body to show their Capital Pride. Different clubs and organizations sponsored projects. Key Club mixed a concoction with who-knows-what and served it during lunch in the canteen area. Anchor Club sold mums throughout the two weeks before Homecoming. Representative Council also sold links to the homerooms and let every 5 links count as 1 spirit point. With these activities, dressing in maroon and gold on Homecoming Day, and anticipating the announcement of Miss Homecoming, it really was a busy season.

On Wednesday December 7 and Thursday December 8, 1977, the Columbia High Drama Club presented two one-act plays. They were "To Burn A Witch" by James L. Bray and "The Diary of Adam and Eve" by Mark Twain. C.H.S. students in the play "To Burn a Witch" were: Connie Lucas, Vicki Shearin, Kim Milam, and Claire Tueber. The cast of the play "The Diary of Adam and Eve" were C.H.S. students, Geoff Wingard, Lisa Hayes, Bruce Napier, Sharee St. Louis, and Joey Sharpe. Both plays were directed by Bob Hungerford.

After weeks of practice and two night performances a cast party was definitely in order. "To Burn a Witch" Performed At Winthrop College, S.C. In March

Calendar Cuties of 1978

In the month of December, the Columbian staff sponsored the Calendar Cuties Contest. Each Junior and Senior homeroom selected two girls to be in the contest. Students then voted for the girls by using money. Each vote equaled five cents. The 1978 Miss Calendar Cutie was Joyce Bell. Twelve other girls also won.

Humanitarian Of The Year

The Class of 1973 established the Christine Webb Humanitarian Award in honor of Mary Christine Webb, former principal of Columbia High School, for "an outstanding dedication to the school community, for sincere compassion, for an exceptional fairness toward mankind, and for optimism, and the belief in the goodness of man."

The Class of 1977 chose Columbia High School as the Humanitarian of the Year. Columbia High School was established as the first public school in Columbia and was located in the center of the city of Columbia. Although the location has changed old traditions still linger. Columbia High will truly continue to give opportunities to future students.

On Awards Day, May 1977, Ruben Mayer was awarded the highest award possible at Columbia High School, the Bill Goudelock award. This award is presented each year in honor of Bill Goudelock, the first Columbia High graduate to be killed in the Korean War. It symbolizes loyalty, honesty, and high moral standards. Ruben was on the B-Squad, J.V., and Varsity basketball teams. He was awarded the Capital Pride award of the basketball team. Ruben was a member of Representative and Executive Councils. He was also a member of the Key Club and the National Honor Society. He was president of the National Honor Society and graduated first in the Class of 1977. With this outstanding record, Ruben definitely deserves this award.

(1) BECKY . . . You cannot add two and two and get five . . . (2) A sure two points. (3) A peaceful moment between classes.

The first day of school is always a day of confusion. Freshmen running around getting lost in a new school building. Sophomores worrying about getting into classes with their friends. Juniors concerned about senior ring orders and getting Mr. Webb for English. While Seniors are worried about getting the right courses and enough credits to graduate. Yet through all this confusion there is a feeling of togetherness. A feeling called Capital Pride.

Capital Pride is achieved by becoming a part of Columbia High. This involves going to football games, being a part of the clubs program, helping with homecoming festivities, and being involved with the many other activities offered at Columbia High.

For Freshmen, Capital Pride is a beginning towards the next four years of school at Columbia High. For Sophomores and Juniors it is a way of becoming more involved and learning more at and about Columbia High. For Seniors, Capital Pride is a memory of good and bad happenings, a period of mixed emotions, and a time which no Senior will ever forget.

(1) Tony enjoys cutting up between classes. (2) June, Vicki, Sharon, and Connie discuss yearbook problems. (3) Mr. Franklin really gets into his directing! (4) Cynthia and Janette love Coach Young.

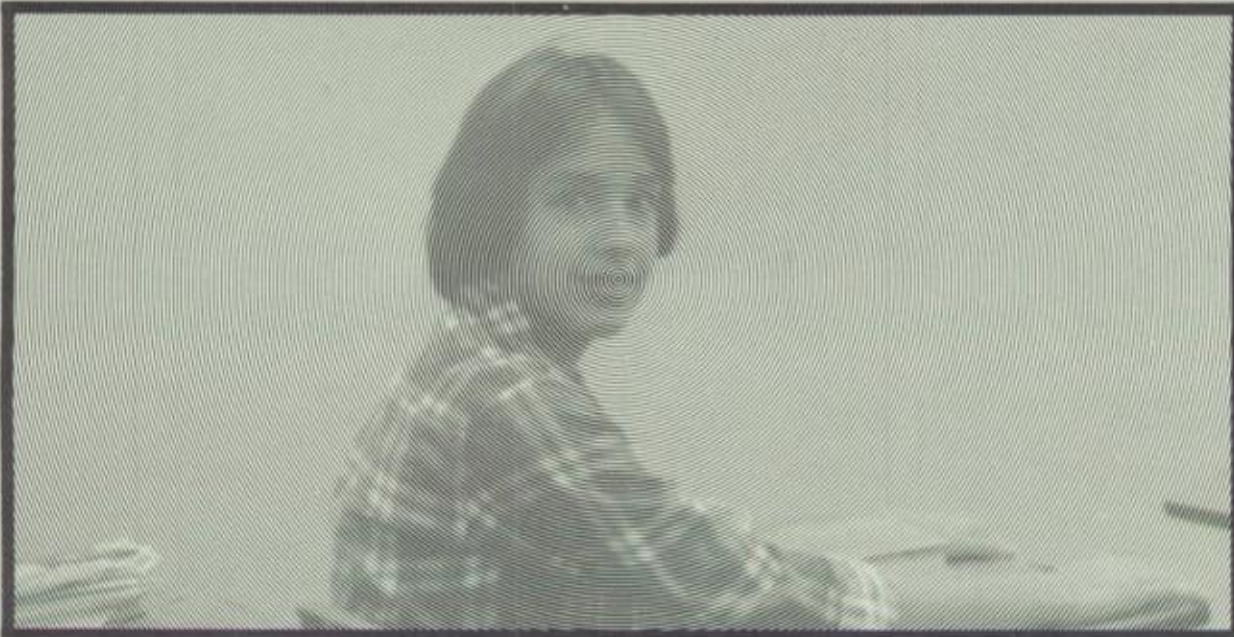

CHS Students Show Their Feelings In Many Different Ways

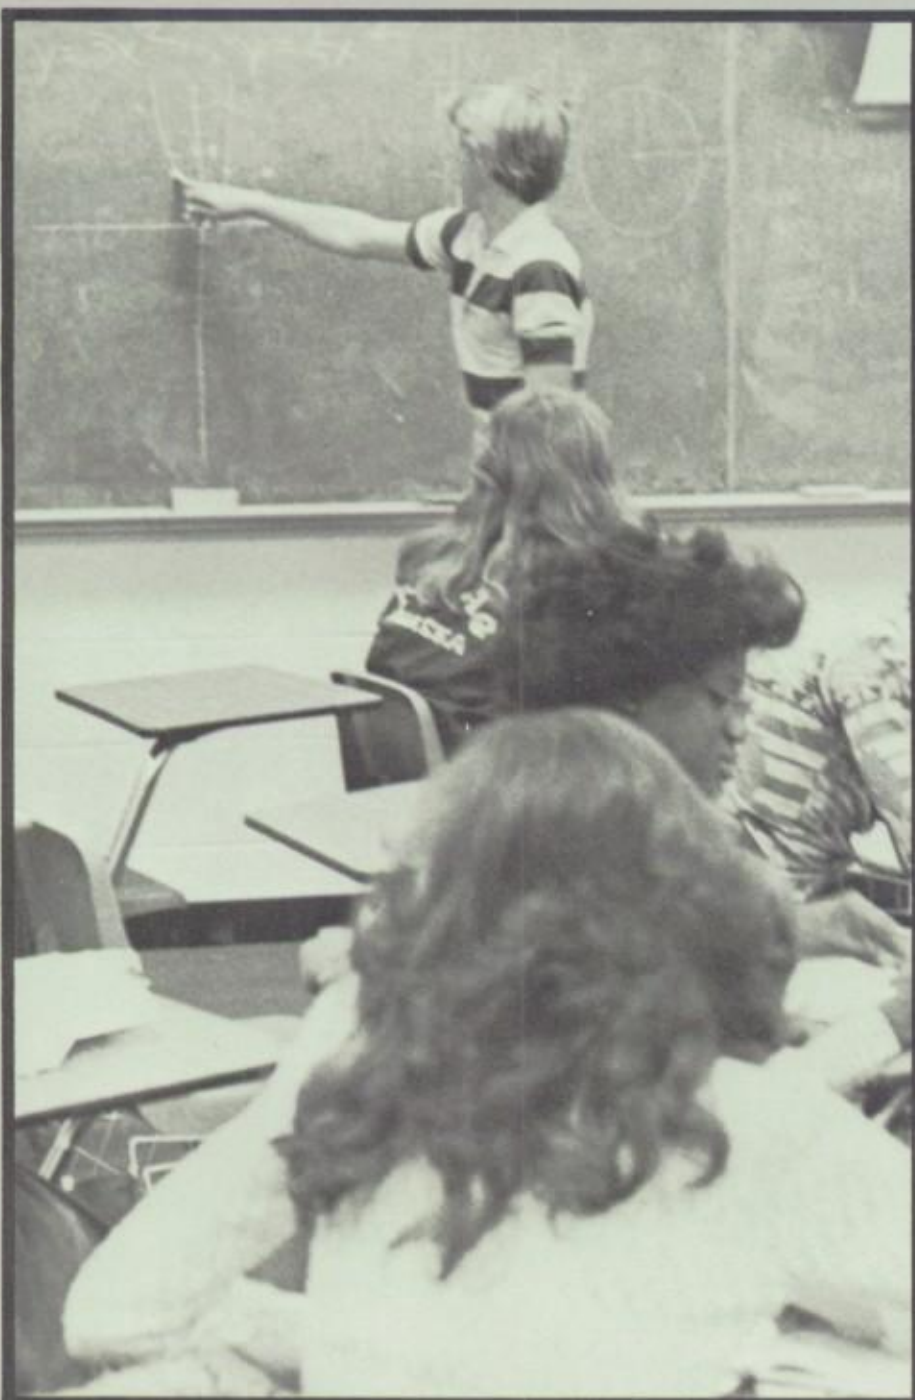

(1) Kenny looks amazed. (2) Are Geoff and Mike mad at each other? (3) Looking at negatives too long affects Craig in the strangest ways. (4) Just friends. (5) Senior homeroom president's boosting Capital Pride during Homecoming festivities. (6) How much Spirit Water will Mike actually drink? (7) "... and they expect me to teach this stuff!" (8) Sane or Insane!!?!?!?

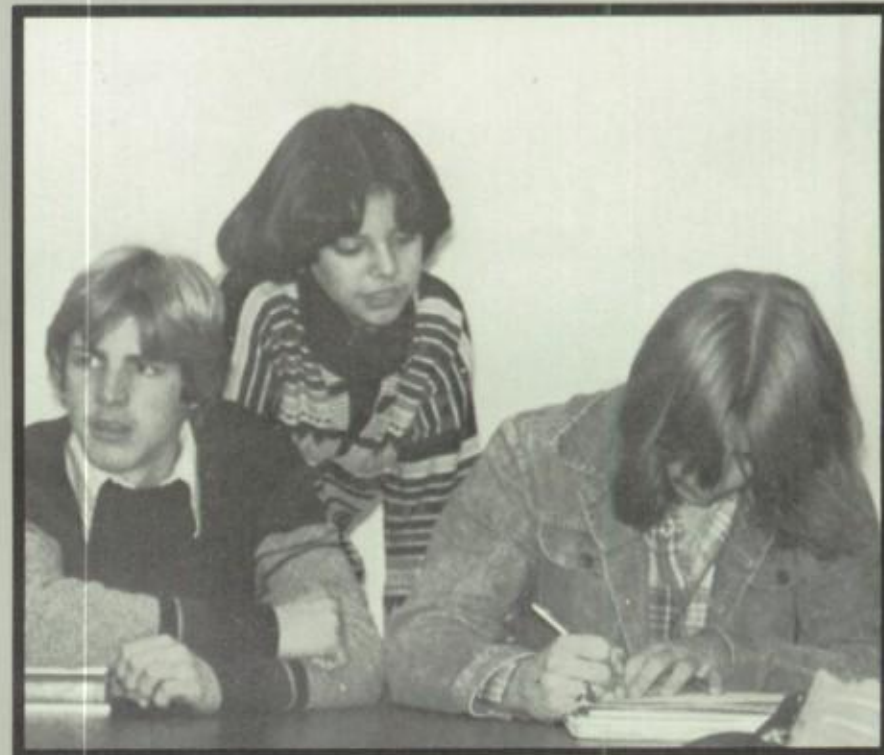

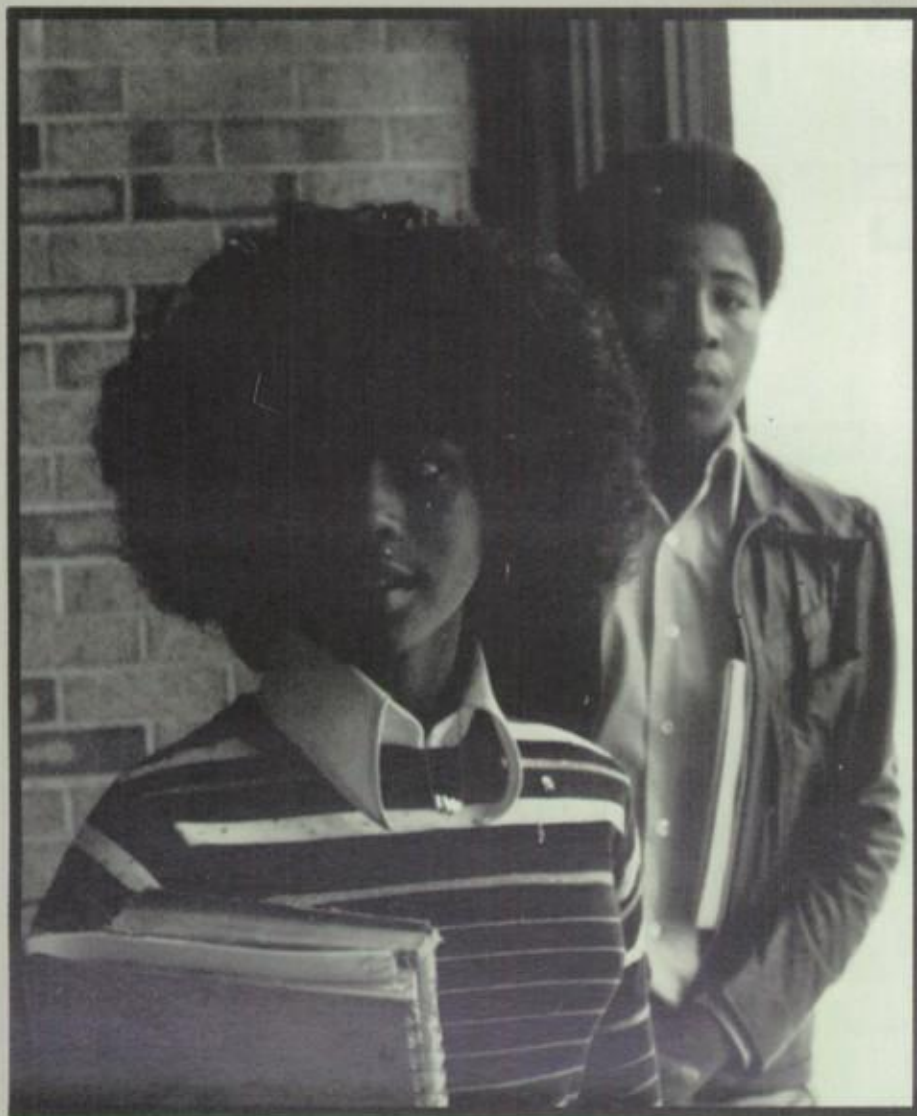

(1) "Now just one minute . . .!" (2) Mark expresses what he thinks of Columbia High. (3) "Todd it's not nice to stare!" (4) Cody is so sure of himself.

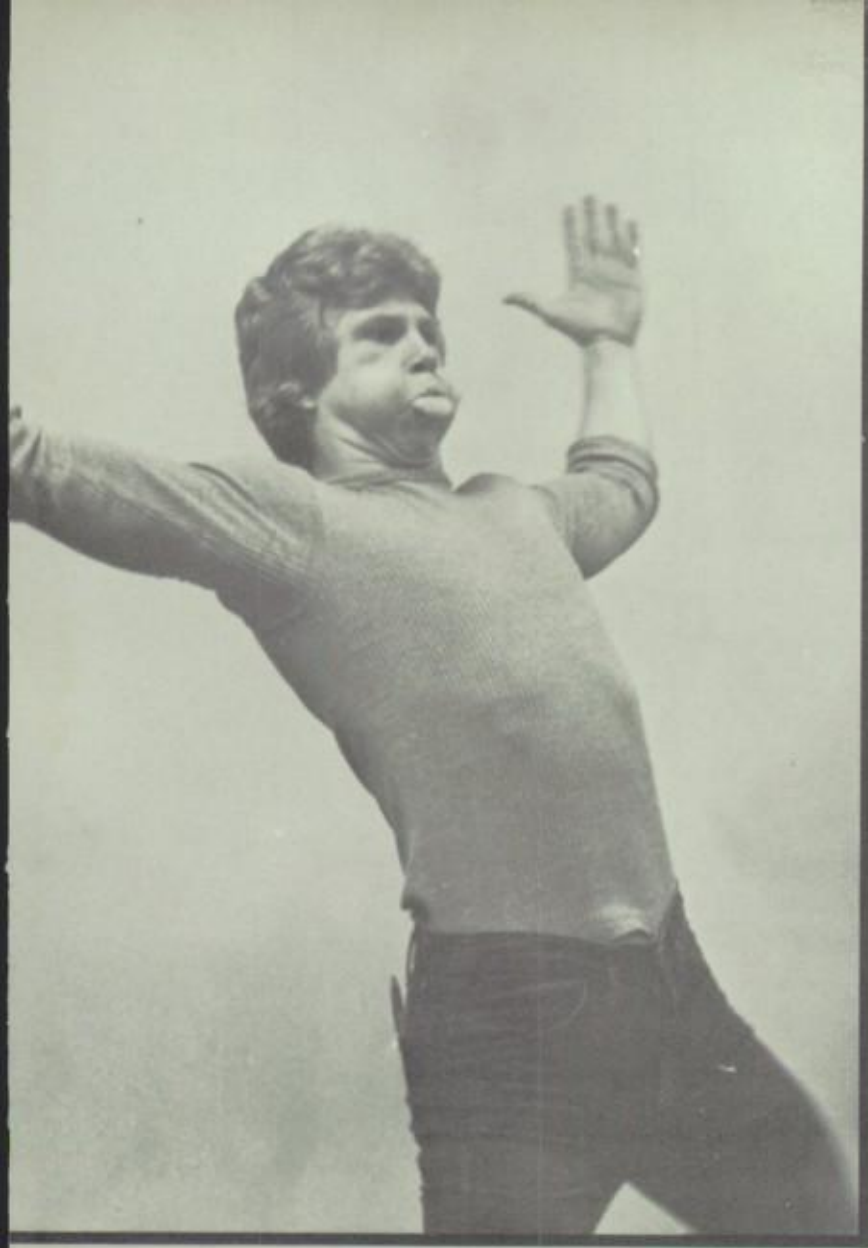

Though Capital Pride is the main feeling around Columbia High it takes many different feelings to compile this Pride. Some of these feelings are love for the school, for each other, and for students in the past as well as in the future. Many students experience likes and dislikes for fellow students along with jealousy, envy, and even respect. Many students show their feelings by the way they act in classrooms, hallways, the lunchroom, the canteen, and even the main office. Though there are many different actions as well as feelings in students and faculty at Columbia High there is one feeling that is definitely a part of all of us. CAPITAL PRIDE!

(1) Such an inconvenience without chairs! (2) Katie and Jacques keep secrets from Edie. (3) "What a hunk!" (4) Keeping busy during Executive Council meetings. (5) Cheering on the Capitals!

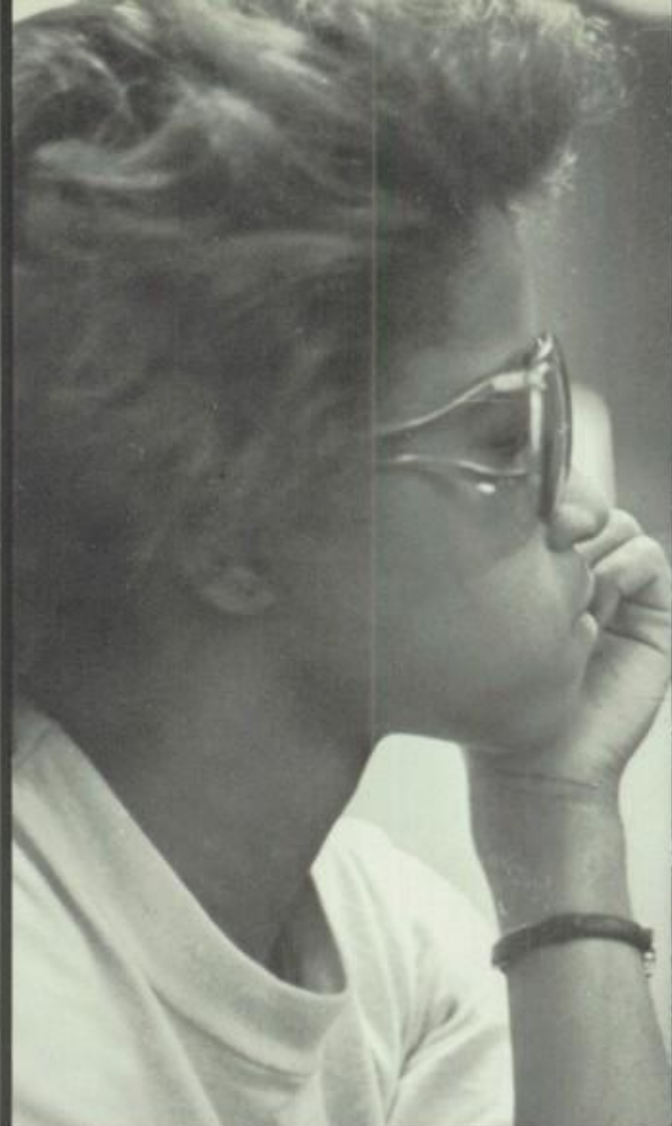

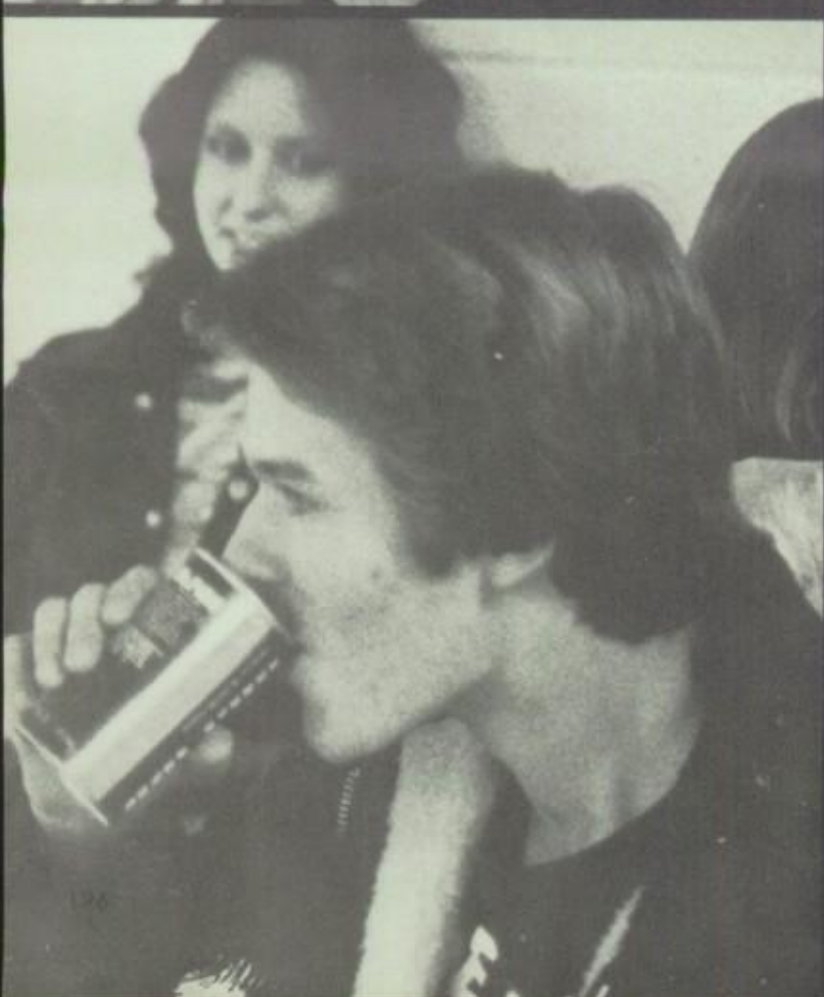

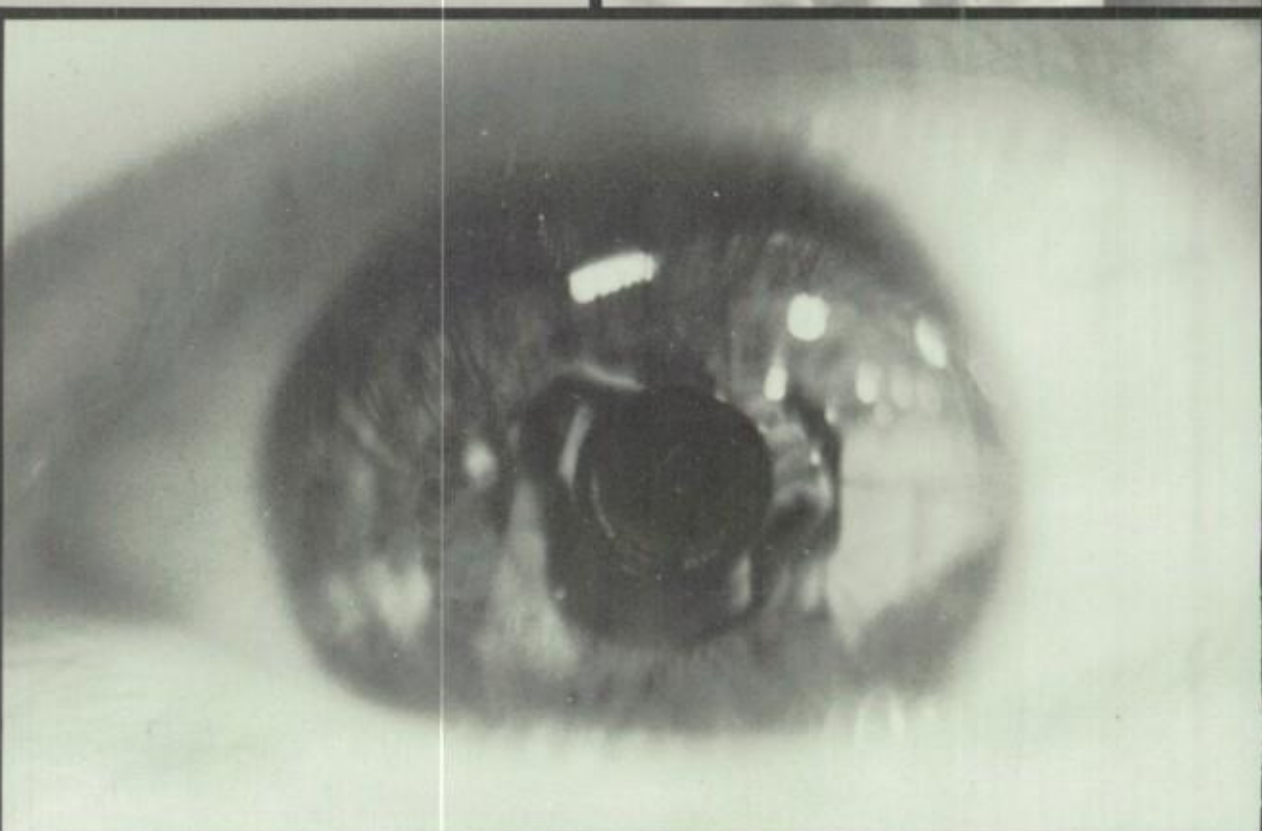

Capitals Pride Themselves In Their Togetherness

Togetherness is a way in which many students express their pride for Columbia High. Many students show and do this by supporting the sports activities by being a part of them and also in keeping the club program going on year after year. Not only do the students at Columbia High show their togetherness in sports and clubs but also in the classroom. Some students do this by helping each other in their studies and by assisting teachers. Without togetherness or pride Columbia High would not be the great school it is today.

(1) Cloud Nine or Dreamland!?!? (2) I'm warning you! (3) The eye of Columbia High watches over you. (4) Just a thought away. (5) "Come back here Chump!"

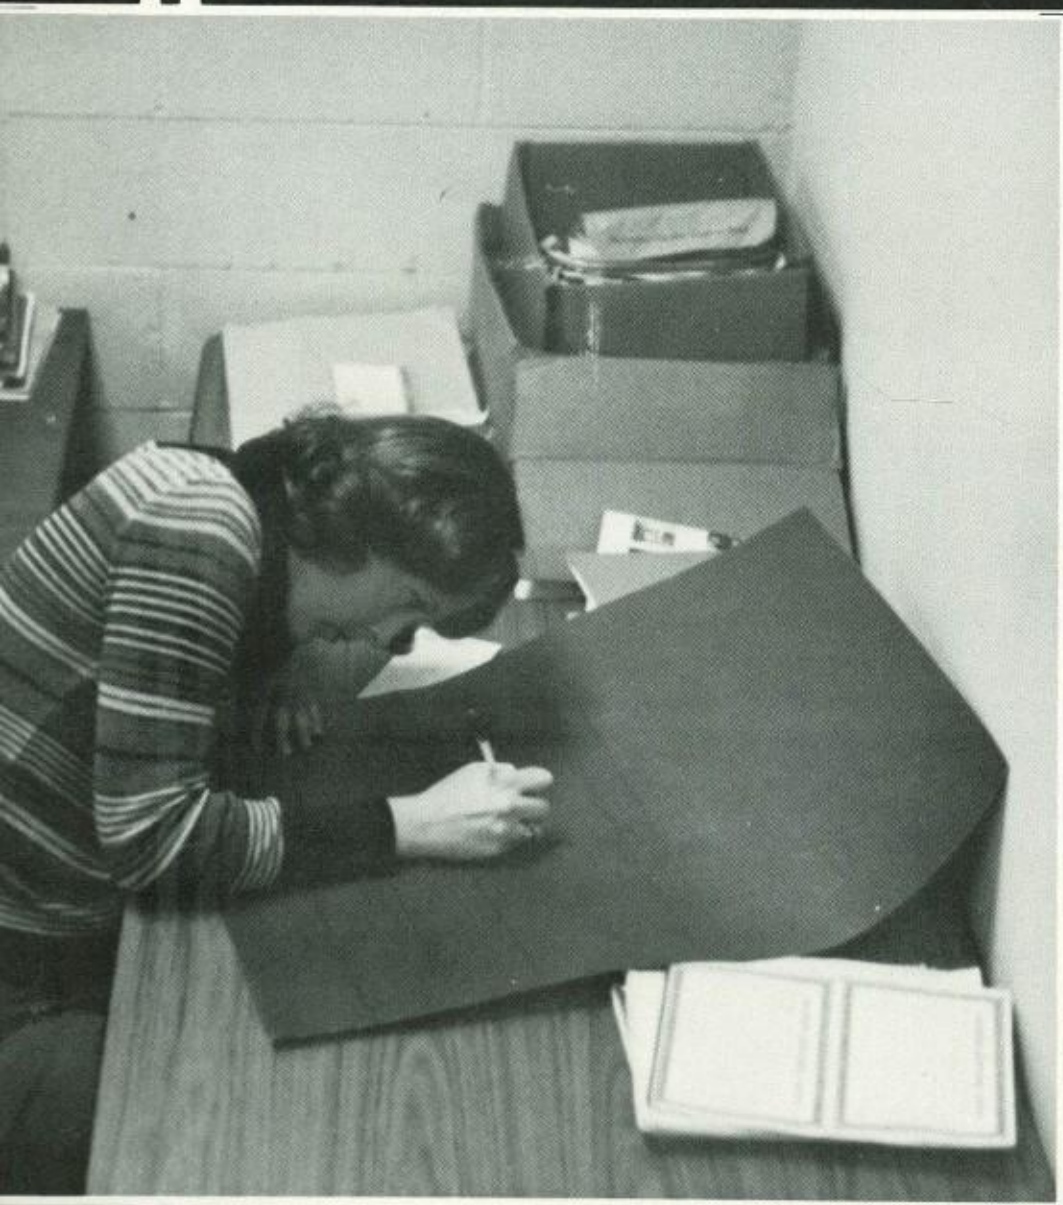

Students Enjoy Extra-Curricular Activities

(1) Is Del giving Mrs. Russell the finger? (2) "Peek-a-boo!" (3) It's not my fault!

Alma Mater

Columbia High, our Alma Mater,
Praise to thee we sing.
Our faith and loyalty forever
To thy portals bring.
As on through life
We make our way,
Our memories will not fail.
All glory, honor, praise to thee,
Columbia High School — HAIL!

“To Everything There Is A Season,
And A Time To Every Purpose . . .”

Ecclesiastes 3:1
